FREEDOM OF CITY LAST CONFERRED
UNDER MAYOR DANIEL IN 1901

Boer War Veterans Were Honored—Purely Honorary Matter Now.

The last time the freedom of the City of St. John was granted to anybody was in 1901, during the Mayorship of Dr. J. W. Daniel. On July 2 of that year this honor was conferred upon Richard Stuart Solomon, of Cape Town, South Africa, "in recognition of the great services and unremitting attention rendered by him to the Colonial, and especially the Canadian forces taking part in the war in South Africa," according to an order-in-council in which the freedom of the city was given him.

Again on the 13th of the same month a similar honor was granted to the members of the South African contingent who were residents of the city at the time of their departure for the South African war "in recognition of their patriotism and devotion in leaving homes and occupations in the interests of Queen and Empire and their gallantry in maintaining British supremacy in South Africa." The list was as follows:

What It Means.
The freedom of the city, which is authorized by an act of the Provincial Legislature, is a purely honorary privilege at the present time. It was not always so, however.
At one time a citizen could, on the payment of a certain fixed amount, be made a freeman of the city and this right would entitle him to do business within the limits of the city and also vote in the civic elections without being the owner of property or being taxed on his income. In other words it was an alternate form of tax payment and was used by a great many of the business owners of the city in those days.

ALBERTSON HELD FOR INQUIRY
Charge of False Pretences is Made in the Police Court.

Carl Albertson, who appeared in the police court this morning charged with attempting to obtain money under false pretences, was remanded to jail until an inquiry could be made. When the charge was read stating that, according to information received from Mrs. McCormick who owns a property in Britannia street, he had been giving notices to tenants in her house of a change in the rents; he also denied the charge. His answers to other questions were quite emphatic. Magistrate Henderson suggested that he have a talk with Mr. Ryan, who he at first said was appearing on his behalf. He refused to have any intercourse with him other than in open court. It was then brought out that Mr. Ryan was appearing for the plaintiff and not the defendant. Mr. Ryan then asked that the defendant be remanded until an inquiry could be made.

SAYS LAWS MUST BE MORE STRINGENT
Magistrate Henderson Comments, in Dismissing Automobile Case.

A case against Alfred G. Kane, who had been reported for exceeding the speed limit in Waterloo street last Sunday, was dismissed by Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning. E. J. Henneberry, who appeared on behalf of the defendant, Magistrate Henderson read extracts from the law and pointed out that more stringent laws will have to be enacted for the regulation of traffic. In view of the fact that the defendant had been driving an automobile for more than six years and had never been reported for any violation and in his favor he dismissed the case. He, however, commended Policeman Gutter for making the report as he had considered the defendant was exceeding the speed limit.

SAYS ST. JOHN WILL MATCH PROVINCE

Mr. Tilley Issues Challenge to Rest of New Brunswick in Drive.

At an enthusiastic meeting last evening in connection with the campaign for the Protestant Orphanage fund, E. A. Schofield presided. L. P. D. Tilley, chairman of the executive committee and the leader of the 700 men who will make the canvas in St. John issued a challenge to the balance of the province. He said that there were 218,000 Protestants in the province and 48,000 of these were in St. John city, leaving 170,000 outside of St. John city. There are really more Protestants outside of the city but the numbers were scattered among the smaller denominations. Mr. Tilley told the representatives from the outside districts that if the balance of the province would raise $100,000 the city of St. John would match it with an equal amount. Chairman Schofield explained that while it would be an impossibility to reach every one of the 170,000 outside of St. John, if each colony would raise the equivalent of $1 for each Protestant resident, the full sum would be secured.

The following were representatives from various parts of the province who reported upon the situation in their territory: Woodstock, D. V. Storm; Hampton, Councillor H. Jordan; Sussex, Percy Bolton; Bathurst, L. A. Palmer; Moncton, A. Hasen Adair; St. George, M. E. Baldwin; Loch Lomond, Rev. C. W. Follett; Fairville, Councillor William Gungigawak; L. B. Evans; Hillboro, G. E. Dawes; Plaster Rock, A. W. Ridgeway.
Following the reports, the chairman called upon Ven. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot, Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong, Rev. W. P. Dunham, Rev. Dr. S. S. Poole, Rev. C. R. Freeman and Rev. W. A. Robbins. The clergy then assured Chairman Schofield that the clergy of the province as a unit would support the movement in every possible way and they were confident that orphans' day would be observed in every Protestant church in the province on next Sunday. Mr. Tilley paid a tribute to the excellent service that H. Usher Miller, M. Campbell and other members of the board had given to the institution.
Mr. Miller in replying said it was more a privilege than a burden to work for the orphanage.
F. T. Short, one of the field representatives of the general executive gave a report of his work through the province.

STORES MUST NOT BE OPEN SUNDAY

Magistrate Lets Fine Stand in Five Cases and Gives Warning.

That the consent of the Attorney General had been received to prosecute violators of the Lord's Day Act who keep their places of business open on Sundays was a statement made by Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning when he was hearing a case against William Hyde, James Jeffries, John Budda, Fred Stewart and Kane's Grocery shop. The first three conduct businesses in Prince Edward street, and the last two in Main street.
All had been reported for making sales last Sunday. In some instances only milk and bread were sold, in others matches, sausages, and other articles. All pleaded guilty.
Magistrate Henderson read extracts from the Lord's Day Act and also explained the exceptions therein. He warned the defendants that there was a penalty not less than $1 and not exceeding $40. He struck a fine of $5, but allowed it to stand, warning them that in future they must turn the keys in their shop doors and keep them closed on Sunday.

As Hiram Sees It

...HORNBEAM TO THE TIMES REPORTER, "I see you got President Betsy of the C. P. R. in town today. I'd like to see the fellow. I been readin' about what he does fer that boys' farm up there. I wonder in Quebec—goes down an' talks to the boys as if he was a big brother—an' makes 'em think they kin amount to somethin' if they try. They say he wants to give every feller on the C. P. a good chance, too. I sort of hev an idee that a railroad with such a man at the top 'ud be run pooty well. I mind they used to say when anything happened to Van Horne or Shaughnessy the C. P. 'ud fall into a rut an' not amount to much, but we kin grow railroad presidents as well as college presidents an' things like that in Canada. If you see Betsy you let me know that Hiram was talkin' about him—an' we'd like to hev him come out to The Settlement if he ever gets time. George Harn used to be awful fond of Hanner's pancakes when he used to be down here. I'd like to see George, too. By Hen!"

Bewildering!

This is the word one customer used in describing our stock of floor lamps, and the expression certainly was an apt one.

Such a rich variety in decoration and styles of the standards—such a profusion of beautiful color effects exhibited by the silk shades, in every conceivable shape and size—all combine to produce an effect of bewilderment. But it is a happy bane to the customer who seeks something unusual and exclusive, and the opportunity of a lifetime to select a gift for the woman who appreciates a combination of beauty and utility.
