"Tremendous number of casualties by the paper."
"What paper?"
"The fly-paper."

Business

She: "I am going to give back our engagement ring. I can never marry you. I love another."
He: "Give me his name and address."
She: "Do you want to kill him?"
He: "No, I want to try to sell him the ring."

Getting Away With It

Wife: "To-day is my birthday, and you've come home and forgotten to bring me a present."
Hubbie: "But, dearie, how can I remember? You look as young as you did last year."

Try Heavier Guns

"Bang!" went the rifles at the manoeuvre.
"Oo-oo!" screamed the pretty girl, as she stepped backward into the arms of a young man.
"Oh!" said she, blushing. "I was frightened by the rifles. I beg your pardon."
"Not at all," said the young man. "Let's go over and watch the artillery."

A Labor of Love

Sydney Mines, Cape Breton, N.S., Aug. 23, 1916.

Dear Brother and Friend.—We write you these lines with feelings of sorrow. We know that you have been laid aside and unable to work. But God is good and we hope you have not forgotten to trust Him, and that by His grace you will strive to enter into the Blessed Post forever from the storm.

You will be surprised when you receive the enclosed gift from brothers and friends, those who know and those who don't. We speak for them. Each was asked to help you a little, and all did, and we hope you will receive it as coming from hearts that feel sorry for you, and ask a blessing from God for them.

We have collected a few dollars when we trust will be a blessing to you in some way, and that you will accept it as a gift from God, and a token that you are not forgotten. We are sending you a Post Office Order for the amount of $28.

We trust you will not take amiss what has been done for we considered your case, and we thought it might be the means of cheering you up. There is an old saying, "Charity is cold," but we do not desire you to look at it in that light, for it is done out of love. Our one desire is that the good God of Heaven, the Father of Love, will store you to health again. But if He rules otherwise, we trust that as you have set your face Zionward you will still cling to the cross and not forget the One who shed His blood for you. The flowers fade and die, but those that are in Christ shall never die, for all must come to the Father through the Son, and through Him we shall have everlasting life.

Remember the "cup of cold water" given in His name, and accept it as the same, for it is but our duty; and what is not done in this life cannot be done hereafter.

Accept best wishes and love from all of us brothers and friends.

The Reason Why

The editor of a country newspaper always did his best to arouse the patriotism of his readers. One day a compositor came in from the composing room and plauted himself before him.

"Well," said he, "I have determined to enlist."

With mingled sensations of pride and responsibility the editor replied that, although sorry to part with such a good compositor, he was glad to see that he felt the call of duty.

"Oh, it isn't that," answered the compositor; "but I'd rather be shot than try to read any more of your copy."

Cut Short

The self-made man stalked into the office of a great financier with whom he had an appointment. "You probably don't remember me," he began, "but twenty years ago, when I was a poor messenger boy, you gave me a message to carry. 'Yes, yes!' cried the financier. 'Where's the answer?'"

A Stinging Rebuke

A young married woman at a dance at a seaside hotel went up to a pretty girl in white who had been tangoing like mad with her husband, and said: "I've got a last year's coat suit that's quite good, really. To be sure it's a hobbie skirt. Still, would you like to have it?"

The girl blushed red with mortification.

"What!" she said. "Do you think I'd wear your cast-off cloths?"

"I thought you might," hissed the young married woman. "You seem anxious enough to get my husband."

He Kept It Up

The Belgians, even in their misery, are quick-witted than their stodgy conquerors, and they succeeded in tormenting the Germans considerably.

A Belgian of Liege braggad so much of the defence his city had put up that the German Governor arrested him, and said:

"You will either swear allegiance to the Kaiser or be shot."

The Liegeois, of course, swore allegiance. He was told then that he could go. But before going, he puffed out his cheeks and protruded his stomach like a fat German, and said with a German accent:

"Vell, goot bye, governor. Auf wiederzehm. Und, say, didn't dose Pelchians give you terrible fight, ghoost?"

Paint Looks Alike When It's New

You can't tell much about the quality of paint by looking at it when it is freshly applied. Colors are easy to produce, and the glisten of fresh oil gives even poor paint a temporary beauty.

But look at it a Few Years Later!

The cheap paint, that started out so bravely, has faded, cracked, and peeled. It is unsightly, and—more important still—has exposed the wood below to the destructive effect of sun, rain, wind and snow. The other, is still a good-looking, weather-tight coating, that will give years more of reliable service.

B-H "ENGLISH" PAINT

There is no mystery about the reason. It lies in the fact that B-H "English" Paint is perfectly proportioned to meet Canadian weather conditions. It contains 70% of Brandram's B.B. Genuine White Lead, and 30% of Pure White Zinc, ground to such marvellous fineness that it penetrates deep into the fibre of the wood. Being the best, it's cheapest in the end.
