P. E. I. RAILWAY ACCIDENT. A Mail Special Badly Wrecked by a

Cow on the Track. Charlottetown, P. E. I., March 25 .-While a mail special in charge of Conductor Gillis was running twenty miles an hour on a down grade three miles from this city, Driver Armour noticed a cow on the track one hundred yods ahead. He put down the brakes, but when the engine struck the cow her legs fell under the catcher. She was cut to pieces and strewn over the track. The engine ran into a ditch, turned a somersault and fell upside down. The driver's foot got caught between the quadrant and the running board and some time elapsed before he could pull it out of the boot. The trainmen kept the driver from burning and scalding to death by throwing snow over him. Fireman Jerry Sweeney jumped from the engine and fell against a fence. collar bone was dislocated and his head cut. The driver and train hands managed to prevent an explosion by shovelling snow into the engine. Immediately after the driver became ex The engine was demolished. hausted. The tender ran fifty feet ahead and turned around, badly smashed. The postal car, with J. McCarey, mail clerk, who received slight left the track and turned on its side. The passenger coach, in which were Superintendent McDonald and two daughters, ran several feet on the sleepers, but nobody was hurt.

A BAD YEAR. Halifax, N. S., March 25 .- The Nova Scotia Marine Insurance Co., in common with such companies elsewhere, had a bad business last year. Not only has this company paid no divi-dend to its shareholders, but this year a call has been made of 20 per cent on the stock to make up for losses. The Nova Scotia is the last of the five local marine insurance companies doing business in this city years ago.

CHINA AND JAPAN.

Li Hung Chang's Wound is Not Dangerous.

The Corean Government Refuses to Accept a Loan From Japan.

Washington, March 25 .- The information coming to the Chinese legation is to the effect that Li Hung Chang's wound is not dangerous, except as complications may develop. It is in the fleshy part of the face, but fortunately no part of the skull has been fractured or any vital organ reached. Prince Li's advanced age and several constitutional disorders, which make him almost an invalid, however, may aggravate an otherwise harmless REPORTS.

Boston, March 21—The Furness line steamship Venetian, which stranded on State ledge. Boston harbor, on the afternoon of March 3 in a snowstorm while proceeding to London, lies broken in two today. The forward part of the vessel settled two feet below the after part, which still hangs on the rock. The steamer is a total loss and the machinery is badly damaged.

New York, March 24—Among the passengers on the steamer Hurbert, from Barbados, which reached the bar at 10 o'clock last night, was Capt Starrett of the wrecked British schooner Granville. Captain Starrett reported that he sailed from Annapolis, NS, January 28th, and from Digby, NS, February 1, for Cardenas, Cuba, with a cargo of lumber. On February 6th, in latitude 36.30, longitude 61.40, a hurricane from the southwest to northwest, accompanied by a tremenduously heavy sea, was encountered, and the vessel soon became water-logged and dismasted. On February 12th the brig Sullivan, bound 1 rom Boston for Surinam, boredown to the wreck, rescued all hands and down to the wreck, rescued all hands and down to the wreck, rescued all hands and dismasted. On Seveniam on the 27th. The wound. On his arrival at Shimonoseki, In this connection Japanese officials say the Lord High Executioner of Mikado fame never had an existence of fact.

London, March 26 .- A despatch to the Times from Shanghai states that the Corean government refuses to accept a loan from Japan with the condition attached to it that it be repaid in five years.

London, March 25.-The Times has this despatch from Kobe, which will be published tomorrow: Li Hung Chang is making good progress to-ward recovery from the effects of the bullet wound in the face inflicted yesterday by Koyama Rokuos. The assassin is reported to be a lunatic. He has a criminal record and served a term of imprisonment.

A Hong Kong despatch to the Times says that precautions against a Japanese attack have been taken at Foo Chow, Amoy and Swatow. The harbor of Amoy has been planted with topedos, and it is thought probable that the Japanese will make an attempt to capture that place.

The Japanese steamers are unable to enter the harbor of Tamsui, in Northern Formosa, owing to the torpedos planted there.

The coolies employed on the wharves in Hong Kong have gone on a strike. A number of soldiers and convicts are employed in discharging and loading Tien Tsin, March 25.-The authorities here have officially notified the consuls of their intention to block the Pei Ho river on the appearance of Japanese warships.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN.

The ex-Champion Will be Able to be Around in a Few Days.

Boston, March 25.-John L. Sullivan was bright and chipper tonight and will be able to be about in a day or two. He said to a caller this afternoon: "I've got to brace up and go into the training again when I get out of this. My few days' confinement have brought me much needed rest, and I begin to feel the old spirit of the ring again. I can't say what my plan of training will be, but I think I will go out to my farm for physical exercise. Keeley cure, did you say? I think that's a good thing." Dr. Ordway said tonight that Sullivan had fully recovered from his threatened attack of pneumonia, and if he is watchful for a few days he would be entirely well. Sullivan today weighs about 270 pounds. He has shaved off his mustache, but he shows age, his once dark hair now being an
