

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

BATH, Carleton Co., Dec. 3.—Lumbermen report good doing in the woods. Donald Fraser & Sons have large crews on the job.

The water works was finished this season only as far as C. J. Green's store, but when spring comes work will be resumed.

The roads are frozen very hard and the river is full of running ice. It opened on the 15th of March last past.

The farmers are hauling their hay into the village for shipment, but owing to the condition of the roads very little progress is being made. A bridge is very much needed at this point across the St. John river to connect this place with Wicklow.

Hamilton Gibson, proprietor of the Gibson House, has completed the rebuilding and refurnishing of this hotel. The name of the house has been changed to that of the Exchange Hotel.

SUSSEX, Dec. 4.—A pleasing event took place at the home of Mrs. J. Gross, Penobscot, on the 3rd inst., when her daughter, Miss Birdie Gross, was united in marriage to Albert B. Pugsley, by Rev. W. Camp of Sussex, in the presence of the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom. The bride, who was unattended, was attired in a brown suit, with hat to match, and carried the customary bride's bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern. After the ceremony a light repast was served, and the bridal party drove to the station to take the C. P. R. They will visit Boston, New York, and other American cities before returning home and expect to be back for Christmas. The groom's present to the bride was a gold monogram watch and long chain. They received many very beautiful presents.

Tenders will be received at the store of J. R. McLean, by the Sussex school trustees, up to December 15th, for persons desirous of furnishing 30 cords best mixed wood and 20 cords first quality rock maple and yellow birch, to be delivered in their school yard not later than March 15th, 1903. Parties may tender for either or both lots. No tender necessarily accepted.

Snow has fallen in Sussex to the depth of about three inches.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Kings Co., Dec. 4.—Rev. Mr. Shaw, Baptist minister of Hampton village and Central Norton, has been holding interesting services at the latter place for the last three weeks. On Sunday seven persons presented themselves for baptism.

Happy Home Lodge, I. O. G. T., which has not met for two or three years, has been reorganized, with a membership of about 50, as the result of a lecture given by Rev. Mr. Ratway.

John W. Floyd has sold his place to John Jamieson, who has engaged John E. Stackhouse to operate for him in the woods this winter.

Donald Crandall of Hampton has moved into Mrs. O'Hara's house, and John Parson of Squirrel Mountain has moved into the house of John E. Smith.

HOPWELL HILL, Dec. 3.—The community was greatly shocked today on learning that Miss Maggie Simpson, teacher of the school at Lower Cape, had died very suddenly this morning at the home of Capt. Chas. Bishop, where she has been boarding. The deceased attended to her duties in the school yesterday, and retired in her usual good health. At an early hour this morning she was taken suddenly and violently ill, and died in a few hours. Heart trouble is supposed to be the cause of death. Miss Simpson, who was very highly esteemed, was a native of Moncton, and leaves a mother, who was for a long time a teacher in the public schools of Moncton.

A number of young men have been up before Justice Blight for being drunk and creating a disturbance at a recent goose supper at Curryville.

Mr. McLean of Bathport is visiting his daughter, Mrs. G. D. Prosser, of Albert. Mr. Ellis, insurance manager, of St. John, was in the village today.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Dec. 4.—At a meeting of the Hiram Lodge, A. F. and A. M., held last evening, R. S. Barker was elected to the office of master, the highest office in the gift of the lodge.

"Bob" Barker, who is the most popular actor as well as most popular musician in the city, and is being heartily congratulated upon his well merited promotion and this evidence of the esteem of his brethren.

Harry C. Wood of this city, for the past two years with T. Pettillo, with headquarters at St. John, has accepted of position with a wholesale Toronto stationery firm as their western representative. Mr. Wood leaves for Toronto Monday next.

B. R. Houghton of Boston, who has been big game hunting on the Miramichi for ten days, came in on the Canada Eastern this afternoon, and proceeds homeward on the C. P. R. He got a fine specimen caribou, but did not get a shot at moose. The weather was unfavorable for moose hunting.

SUSSEX, Dec. 5.—The annual meeting of the fire wards was held last evening at the engine room, but was adjourned till Thursday next, the 11th inst.

The ladies of the Methodist church held their annual supper last evening and are very much pleased with the result of their work, having made about $147.

Dr. Pearson, one of the councillors for Sussex, received a letter from Mr. Orr, secretary-treasurer of Kings Co., stating that he had received word from the department of railways at Ottawa. There is a charge against the municipality of $30 for the expense of putting in a railway crossing at the end of Park street, near the trotting park. The department threatens to close the crossing if the money is not paid at once. The minister of the day stopped off here and personally settled the matter (at the time) with J. D. O'Connell and the citizens, he fore the crossing was made and arranged for it being completed. The citizens of Sussex are perfectly easy over the matter, and think the department of railways will consider their threat before executing it.

The sale of the registers, by the herd of cattle of the late Thomas Roach takes place on Tuesday, the 3rd inst., at 10 o'clock a. m., at his late residence. The ten implements will also be offered for sale.

CHARLOTTETOWN, Dec. 4.—Much regret was felt in Charlottetown in consequence of the sudden death of Philip S. Spencer, who died in the P. R. Island hospital Sunday morning. His death was due to Bright's disease. He was a son of G. B. Spencer of the treasurer's department, I. C. Spencer of the P. R. Island hospital, and Rev. G. M. Young, representing the Masons, and F. W. Gill from the Sons of England. There were many beautiful floral offerings.

Dr. C. A. McPhail died of apoplexy and coma in St. John's hospital on Wednesday. He was a graduate of Trinity College and an L. R. C. P. of Edinburgh University.

Recent deaths in this province include Mrs. Mary Harn, Charlottetown, aged 75 years; Mrs. John McCarthy of St. Theresa's, aged 74 years; Mrs. J. E. O'Dwyer of Charlottetown, aged 74 years; Wm. Bolger of Montague Cross, aged 71 years.
