FOLLOW THE KING.

The New South Wales Sons of Temperance are organizing "Follow the King Societies," that is, they are getting people to take the pledge taken by King George, not to drink intoxicants of any kind while the war lasts. And there is considerable enthusiasm being awakened by the movement. It can be safely set down that a lot of people who get the habit of letting the drink alone for a time will continue that excellent habit.

IMPROVEMENT AHEAD.

A well-dressed woman, accompanied by a disreputable looking drunken man went to a minister to be married. After the opening part of the service had been read the minister inquired "Will you take this man for better or worse?"

"He can't be any worse, sir," interposed the bride-elect quickly, "but I reckon he'll be a heap better before I'm done with him."

And then the wedding proceeded.

MEMBERS PLAN EXPANSION FOR THE Y.M.C.A.

Meeting of Campaign Committee — More members wanted in the Association.

A meeting of the Membership Campaigning Committee in connection with the boys and men of the Y. M. C. A., was held last evening in their rooms and began with supper being served at 6.15. Joseph Henderson presided and called the meeting to order after all had done justice to the supper. He explained the purpose of the meeting, telling the members that they should strive to promote a larger membership and pointed out that this could be done only through the individual and co-operation of the members interested in the activities of the association. Ten members of the different committees gave short addresses. Among these were J. M. Roche, H. W. Rising and F. T. Barlow. The speaker seemed enthusiastic over the way the present season was progressing and the classes showed such an increased attendance that a very successful year is predicted. They also spoke of the opportunity which the Y. M. C. A. had for reaching young men of the city who for satisfactory reasons were unable to enlist at the present for overseas service. Many young men were now taking the training to fit themselves for the call.

After discussing the matter for a time it was decided on motion of J. M. Roche to form an "Expansion Club." The qualifications for membership were open to any member of Y. M. C. A., who would pledge himself to bring in two new members before the last day of December.

The boys' secretary, P. J. Legge and Herbert Morton reported that the Bible study groups have been organized as membership campaign teams. It has been decided to boost the boys' department and their slogan is to be "Another Hundred." An unique plan has been adopted and will prove interesting. It has been planned to cut a Union Jack into one hundred pieces and as each new member joins a piece will be added and it is hoped to soon re-unite the good old flag.

About thirty-five at all attended the meeting and after all business had been conducted they closed with the National Anthem.

SERGEANT KNIGHT CONTINUES TO ENTHUSE MEN OF ST. JOHN

Twenty-three recruits were secured here yesterday— Meeting in Queen's Rink well attended — Men of Loyalist city realize their responsibilities.

YESTERDAY'S HONOR ROLL.

George F. Sudbush, Leonard Moore, Bartholomew Goodine, Millard S. Osborne, Nelson Manning, Harold G. Akarley, William Alexander, Robert Phillips, John Edwin Moore, Albert E. Parks, John Jesse, Guy O. Paries, Harold H. Stickman, George Capson, James Scurrath, James M. Johnson, W. H. Barr, Walter Fishwick, Walter B. Smith, John Alexander Jeffery, J. F. Paries, Albert Edward Clarke, William Cummings.

A large number attended the recruiting meeting last night in Queen's Rink. John Kneffe presided and speakers were made by Rev. R. P. McKim and Sergeant Knight. There was evidence of continued interest in the movement for more men. During the day twenty-three men came forward and most of them passed the medical examination. Many more, it is expected, will be ready to respond to the call for men in view of the urgent need so clearly shown by the speakers last night and those who have from time to time called attention to the serious conditions confronting the Empire.

Rev. Mr. McKim said that he had himself, offered his services in any capacity that might be useful. "I haven't been a day since war broke out," he said, "that I have not thought of my duty in this terrible conflict. I am willing to go to the trenches and to help the fellows there—God bless them—who are doing so nobly for all that is worth living for. I heard the other day the splendid remarks of Sir Robert Borden and these made me think more than ever that I ought to try and do something, but the fact is, I am more than forty-five years old. The fine spirit of the members and attendants at St. Luke's church has given me heart for the task. Sixty-seven men connected with my church have enlisted. I know that these men understand the price they are paying, the cause for which they are fighting; they know they are fighting for their homes, freedom and righteousness. I appeal to you, all you men who can go, to help the other men. They are calling for you. What are you going to do about it? Tonight there is an opportunity of putting your name on a real roll of honor. Do it now and God bless you."

Sergeant Knight said: "We have God to thank that the British are ready to retaliate for the German atrocities in Belgium and most other parts in the war area. Thank God we have hitherto kept our hands clean; we are not using underhand methods, we are fighting like men. Some of the ladies have been doing their best to encourage their men to join the ranks, but there are others who are doing their best to keep them from going forward. Shall I remind the latter of German atrocities, of the treatment of the Kaiser's armies? Germany doesn't care what she does so long as she attains her object. What object? To subdue the whole world.

"I cannot understand how, after men have been crucified, tortured and left wounded on the battlefield without any attempt on the part of the German soldiers to act even a human part, any man of British instincts, with rich red blood can remain behind.

"Although many have responded to the call there are more who should do so. We have never, as a nation, resorted to trickery, but the Germans had long ago considered what she would do to get what she wanted by means that were worse than trickery. Do you want to undergo the same treatment that the Belgians have received? If you do, stay at home, stay at home and have a good time. But at home and have a good time and you won't stay, you will go and join the boys who have preceded you. All sorts of excuses may be brought forward why you should not help them and the Empire. Some fathers and mothers won't let their sons go, some men won't let their husbands, but I tell you now that you are not doing your duty to either your father, mother, wife or anyone else if you hold back."

"Lone Soldiers' Day." The Loyalist Chapter, I. O. D. E., will observe November 1 as "Lone Soldiers' Day." The object is to get parcels to send to soldiers at the front who have no relatives looking after them. All parcels are to be left at the Dufferin Hotel sample rooms. Hours are from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The last regular meeting of Chilliwack, B. C., L. O. L., 1470, was held in the Orange hall Thursday night, Oct. 7, and was largely attended by members. Two new members joined by certificate and a resolution was unanimously passed in favor of prohibition.

CHINAMEN WERE GUILTY ON THE OPIUM CHARGE

Hop Lee and Sing Lee fined $500 each—More charges

In the Police Court yesterday afternoon Hop Lee and Sing Lee were adjudged guilty of being proprietors of an opium joint in Mill street and were each fined five hundred dollars or one year in jail. The following Chinese were found guilty of being inmates: Ham Lee, Geo Lee, Son Kiet, Ham Fook, Ham Bill, Wong Hing, Au Tear, Hum Lop, Kith Suel, Ham Bing, Song Kee, Hum Ben, En On, Ham John, Lem Tong, Sam Toms, Hum John and Hum Quong. Of this list Ham Lee forfeited a deposit of one hundred dollars and Hum Quong, being an old Chinaman, sixty-five years of age, and the evidence going to show that he was a cousin of a dead man, and had been summoned to Hop Lee's on the night of the raid, he was dismissed with a warning to keep away from such resorts in the future. Seventeen of the number, however, were fined one hundred dollars each or one month in jail. Five of them are out on bail and the remainder were remanded to jail. They will appear in court again today at noon when judgment will be given against Hop Lee and Sing Lee for being proprietors of a gaming house, while the others are charged with being inmates. If found guilty all are liable to a fine of two hundred dollars each. In all, the fines struck yesterday afternoon amounted to a total of $2,700, and if all are fined for gambling the amount will for this offence total $3,900 and the grand total for both offences would be $6,600.

WANT A THREE CENT STAMP

Board of Trade to move in this matter — Meeting of Council last night.

A meeting of the council of the Board of Trade was held yesterday afternoon, J. A. Likely presiding. Other members present were: P. W. Thomson, W. E. Foster, A. H. Wetmore, H. C. Schofield, W. K. Ganong, W. P. Burditt, J. Hunter White, R. B. Emerson and W. B. Bamford. It was decided to support the action taken by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association in their effort to have recent legislation in Saskatchewan affecting adversely the farming industry in that province, more particularly the trade in agricultural implements, disallowed by the Canadian government. The matter of bringing in alcohol, duty free, for industrial and chemical purposes was brought forward. The desirability of arriving at a definite conclusion in the matter was emphasized, but it was decided that further information should be forthcoming before the council could make any representation to the government.

The council approved the minor increase in commodity rates of the steamship line. The matter of providing a three cent stamp for postal purposes during the war period was considered. It was pointed out that a three cent stamp would be generally convenient. The council decided to call the attention of the Postmaster General to the views of the business and other people here respecting the use of a stamp of this denomination.
