

LORD BEAVERBROOK EXPRESSES HIS OPINION ON PROHIBITION

London, August 7. (By the A. P.)—Lord Beaverbrook, president of the Canadian War Records Staff, paid a tribute to the work of the overland ministry. He had heard much discussion of its work during his recent stay in Canada, but had seen nothing in Great Britain to equal the accomplishment of the Canadian ministry which far outstripped the British war office or the American administration in efficiency. Lord Beaverbrook speaking of what was said about the benefits and advantages of prohibition said it had not any benefits or advantages. When those returning to Canada said six weeks' experience they would agree with him. Sir Hamar Greenwood speaking of Lord Beaverbrook's work at the ministry of information said it was the last government office to be formed for war purposes and first to be dissolved. He was sorry the same rapidity had not been shown with regard to other war departments.

WARNING NOTE SOUNDED BY CHANCELLOR OF EXCHEQUER

London, Aug. 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—"If we continue spending at the rate we are now, it will lead straight to national bankruptcy," was the strong warning of the Chancellor, Mr. Lloyd George, in his speech to the House of Commons tonight. "Neither increased production, nor reduced expenditure alone, will be sufficient. We have got to do both if we are to pull through and turn the corner."

BRITISH MONITORS BOMBARD ONEGA

Several Houses Were Set on Fire, But the Situation Was Brought Under Control.

London, Aug. 8.—A despatch from Archangel under date of Thursday to Reuters Agency says that since the recent mutiny of St. John, war monitors have been hard at work, entirely by the Russians, except for British gunners. The Russians captured part of the town, but after heavy street fighting were obliged to retire. Two British monitors afterwards shelled Onega and its approaches for eleven hours and are effectively controlling situation, says the correspondent. Some houses were set on fire by the bombardment.

A very pleasant event was that of Tuesday evening, when a large company of friends was received by the Rev. Mr. J. E. Fenwick, at the home where the ladies of the Methodist Aid Society served tea to a large assemblage, representative of all the various bodies, and was surrounded by a most pleasant and social atmosphere. Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick were the recipients of hearty thanks, inasmuch as they had so graciously opened their home and extended their hospitality in their usual cordial manner.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Weldon, and daughter and Mrs. George Chamberlain of St. John, motored to Collins for the weekend, where Mr. and Mrs. Weldon were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hickson and Mrs. Chamberlain was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelia Chamberlain.

Mr. Holmes is a returned hero, who has suffered much, having previously undergone an operation which did not prove effectual.

THE GOBLIN'S CAVE.
Cave is in Edinburg and is many hundreds of feet below the ground. There is first a very long flight of steps out from the earth which are very difficult to descend. When you reach the bottom of this flight there is a small door through which you must crawl; the next flight of steps is out from the rock and is easy to descend. At the foot of this flight is the cave. Light a candle you will see that the floor is covered with old, dusty guns, muskets and arrows, swords and pistols. There are also a lot of bones and mud.

FREE TO MEN

Manly Vigor—Something New

Manly Men Are Always in The Game.

Here is a little free pocket compendium in book form illustrated with 40 half-tone photo reproductions, and containing 8,000 words of easy advice on private matters, which I gladly send to any man anywhere in the world who writes me a note of request, and enclosed in a perfectly plain, sealed envelope, so it is received by you like an ordinary private letter. I take all this special precaution in sending the book because, where the health is concerned, and especially with reference to debility and nerve weakness, people everywhere prefer to keep the matter entirely to themselves. For the reason I seal the envelope and put a full letter postpaid, and thus mailed over a million of the books to men all over the world who requested them.

You reader, will like this little book immensely, and can grasp the full meaning of its special advice on one or two careful readings, as well as a great deal of heretofore unpublished information of interest to all men, young or elderly, single or married, and who desire to be of value to you throughout your entire lifetime.

In one part of the book I describe my little mechanical VITALIZER, which was invented by me to assist men to regain lost vigor. However, you are not to think of getting this VITALIZER, for the advice book and read up on the subject of self preservation without drugs.

Please use the coupon below and the book will come to you free, sealed, by return mail.

SANDERN, Publisher.

Readers, did you ever stop to consider that it is not looks which make the real man? Nor is it necessarily a large man who wields the most power in his community. However, whether big or small, young or elderly, we invariably find that vigorous, manly manhood stands behind all of the world's greatest achievements and successes. In this respect, I give it as my honest opinion, based upon over 30 years' experience, that no man need lose hope of himself restoring his full manly power if he be willing to make a fair, square effort, and will lead a decent, manly life, free from excesses and free from dissipation. My free book gives you all the desired information. According to my belief, lost manly strength is no real organic disease in itself, and, for that reason, should easily respond to any mode of treatment which puts new vital force into the system.

Book, 8,000 Words Free

Remember, I will send you, as stated above, my little book or pocket compendium, containing 40 illustrations and 8,000 words of private advice free, sealed, by mail. This book is meant to point out to men certain errors which are being committed all over the world today by those who do not realize the harm resulting. It gives, in condensed form, and in easy language, the truths that I have learned from years upon years of experience. It deals with vigor and manly power as against weakness and debility. One part of the book describes my little VITALIZER, so all information is complete in this one volume. Please write or call today. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case.

A. F. SANDERN CO., 140 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ont.
Dear Sir:—Please forward me your book, as advertised, free, sealed.

SPECIAL PRIZES.

First Prize ..... $100.00
Second Prize ..... 75.00
Third Prize ..... 50.00
Fourth Prize ..... 25.00
The above Special Cash Prizes will be won by the four highest vote-getters on subscriptions between August 4th and August 16th at 6 p. m.

The result of yesterday's counting of the ballots in The Standard's $10,000.00 Prize Contest is published today, and a few changes in positions of the candidates will be noted. There remains one full week in which to win the $250.00 in cash prizes and it behooves every candidate to be at subscription getting as strong as possible between now and Saturday, August 16th, at 6 p. m.

Some candidates entered the contest saying, "I will try and do the best I can, for at least, I will win a commission prize which will repay me for the effort I put forth." That was the spirit with which they entered the contest, and they have tried to do the best they could and today those candidates are among the leaders in their district. Why? Because they tried, and if they missed they tried again, and before long they got under way and found that in overlooking the first discount, they were soon rewarded with success, now they know how to secure subscriptions and are going it strong. Then there were others who entered the contest and admitted that they could easily win an automobile, and that is as near as they come to winning one so far. Perhaps these candidates thought that by having their names placed in the list of candidates that their many friends would come forward with subscriptions, that all they would have to do was read their vote showing each time the votes were counted and find their score going up fast. The fact that they have done nothing to help themselves in the first instance, they could have counted upon their many friends to help them had they made the effort to do something to help themselves. Their friends are still hoping that they will soon make a showing; they still stand ready in most cases to lend their aid, but how long they will wait for you to make a start is a question. It would seem that they would soon tire of waiting and lend their support to some live candidate who is up and doing things. Are you going to show your friends you can accomplish things or are you going to be a quitter since somebody else would not do it all for you? You have an opportunity now to answer this question by making a showing or requesting that your name be removed from the list of candidates.

OBITUARY

Miss Mabel Frier.

Shediac, N. B., Aug. 7.—Our community reeled a great shock on Tuesday when the news circulated in town of the sudden death of Miss Mabel Frier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Frier, at her home in the "Blue Bird." The late Miss Frier, while not of a strong constitution, had been in her usual health, and on the evening previous to her death had been present at a meeting in Tippecanoe Hall concerning a demonstration to be given "our soldiers" from overseas in the near future. She had made her plans for the morning for regard to her part in the matter, and it was a terrible blow to her mother to go to her daughter's room next morning and find she had passed away. The doctor who was at once summoned pronounced death due to valvular heart trouble. Shediac sincerely mourns the passing from our midst of a young and useful citizen, energetic, faithful to duty, an ardent church worker, religious, and always ready to do her "bit" in all matters patriotic, and in all that pertained to the "uplift" of society it can sincerely be said of the late Miss Frier "she hath done what she could." The deceased was an only daughter, and is survived by her parents and six brothers, Messrs. John, of Sussex; George and Stanley, in the United States; Leola and Arthur, late of overseas, and at present in home, and Gordon, of Shediac. To the grief-stricken parents and members of the family in such a sad and sudden bereavement the heartfelt sympathy of all our citizens is extended.

The funeral will take place this (Thursday) afternoon, Rev. Dr. Weddall, pastor of the Methodist church, will conduct the burial at Greenwood cemetery. Among beautiful floral tributes sent in memory of the deceased are a wreath from the Methodist church, of which congregation Miss Frier was an active worker, and an appropriate floral offering from the Red Cross Society of Shediac, of which the deceased was a faithful and devoted member.

Rice is rich in starch and deficient in oil. A little olive oil taken at meals replaces bacon. Lemon Juice is good served with sliced bananas.
