Have Been Announced--Rudolphe Lemieux Will Win by 1,200 in Gaspe Dominion Election -- Validity of a Conservative Deposit in Doubt.

Quebec, Nov. 15—(Special)—Most of the government candidates for the different city divisions have been already decided upon. In Quebec West, the candidates will likely be J. G. Hearn; in St. Sauvier. Hon. Mr. Parent, will probably be elected by acclamation; Mr. Robitwille, who has represented Quebec Centre since 1897, will be in the field again; in The result of the poll tweether to the declared to the contract of the poll tweether to the declared to the contract of the poll tweether to the declared to the contract of the poll tweether to the declared to the contract of the poll tweether to the declared to the poll tweether to the declared to the poll tweether to the contract of the poll tweether to the declared to the poll that the pollution of the poll

GASPE CHANGING ITS MIND.

Ottawa, Nov. 15—(Special)—A message from Rudolphe Lemieux, Liberal candidate in Gaspe, to the minister of public works says that his majority will be 1,200. The county is supposed to be Conservative in its leanings and sends Hon. Mr. Flynn to the local legislature.

A Quebec Caucus.

Montreal, Nov. 15—(Special)—Hon. E. J. Flynn, leader of the Quebec Conservative party, arrived in Montreal tonight, from Quebec and subsequently had a protracted conference with his supporters in the Quebec legislature.

The provincial situation was discussed at considerable length.

TO RUN IN MAISONNEUVE.

It is said that Mr. Archie Campbell, who opposed Mr. Clarke Wallace and was defeated, has been approached with a view of running in one of these constituencies, most probably Maisonneuve. If not Mr. Campbell, then Mr. Robert Machay may run in it. Although the constituency is French-Canadian, it will elect a liberal no matter as to what his re-

He died within 20 minutes after the rush, in the ambulance while on the way to the hospital. Moore had taken part in a football game earlier in the afternoon. He had been sick recently and was probably in no condition to take part in both contests. The cause of death was undoubtedly due to suffocation, and exhausted heart, although an autory may reced internal indue to suffocation and exhausted heart, although an autopsy may reveal internal injuries as well. Moore was dragged from the final pile up, while hands were still being counted upon the cane. His head protruded from the twisted heap of legs and arms and his eyes were shut. He was quickly carried to a clear space where Dr. Mixter, who chanced to be present, applied rectarding and did agree thing possible to revive him, but to no purpose.

Nearly all of the spectators had left the field and they were thus spared a terrible shock. Moore, who presently lapsed into total unconsciousness, was placed in a city hospital ambulance that had been summon-ed, but breathed his last almost as the door
