

Miscellaneous.

PUBLIC EXERCISES.

At the opening of the College in September, the Senate provides for the delivery of an Oration in the Assembly Hall.

At the close of the First Session the Junior Exhibition is held, when orations are given by members of the class.

On the first Thursday in June the Anniversary of the College is commemorated, at which time the ceremonies connected with the graduation of students and the conferring of degrees, are observed by the Senate.

LIBRARY, &c.

The College Library, containing valuable works in the departments of Literature, Science and Theology, is accessible, under proper regulations, to the students of the College and Collegiate Academy.

The income of the DeWolf Library Fund provides for yearly additions to the Library.

The College is provided with apparatus for experiments in Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Surveying, &c.; also a Cabinet, well furnished with contributions from various parts of the world, illustrative of the departments of Geology, Mineralogy and Botany.

SOCIETIES.

Acadia Athenæum.—The object of this Society is the improvement of the Students in discussion and public speaking. Besides its weekly meetings, arrangements are made for a course of Public Lectures during each College year. The laws and regulations of the Society are subject to the approval of the Faculty.

The Society has under its control a Reading Room, furnished with a selection of Newspapers, provincial and foreign, and other periodicals.
