APPLETON.

cial to THE HERALD.

There has been good skating on the river here just above the bridge all winter, and the young people are having a jolly time every night.

Gordon Paul, who has been a resident for some time, has gone to enlist for overseas and although we are sorry to lose another of our young men we wish him God-speed.

lose another of our young men we wish him God-speed.

The young people of the village gave a dance on Friday night in Mr. Fuller's new house which is almost finished, and all report a good time. We are glad to see another house here, as houses are very much needed at the present time. The Excelsior Mission Band held their meeting in St. Andrew's church on Saturday afternoon. Their Band is gradually increasing in numbers and the children take great interest in the work.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. R. C. Fumerten has sustained serious injuries by falling down stairs one day last week. All hope she will soon be quite herself again.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Aid society, held at "Kenmore Farm" last week, the President, Mrs. John Stewart, and the Treasurer, Mrs. T. C. Arthur, handed in their resignations as officers. Mrs. E. H. Turner was elected President. The Ladies of the society expressed sincere gratitude to Mrs. Arthur for her willing and efficient services both in the society and in the general work of the church and regret that Mrs. Arthur is shortly leaving to take up her residence in Carleton Place.

Miss Meda Miller, of Cedar Hill, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Molt-Struthers at present.

of Queen's Ambulance met Allie Buffam of a western battalion. Lanark will not keep apart. Although these two soldiers bad not seen each other since one was a star pitcher on Lanark's diamond and the other was knee high to a grasshopper wondering what it was all about, the magnetism of nativity compelled recognition. "I know your face, but I can't tell your name" was the only barrier to identity, but when the truth flashed upon each and both, they were immediately pals.

Writing under date of Jan. 3rd, the Paris correspondent of the Montreal Star has the following to say concerning Capt. A. D. McConnell, a few years ago assistant pastor of the Methodist church, Lunark Clayton circuit, who spent New Year's in Paris: Among the Canadians who were able to spend their Christmas leave in Paris were Col. Lanaudiere, Capt. Gobell, Major Chasse Major by c, of Quebec, and Capt. McConnell, of Kingston. The two last named hold the fortunate record of never having had to reave tuent work for one day's s ckness or wounds since war broke out.

after the absence of street lights for a time. The main streets are lighted by 400 watt lamps enclosed in handsome pear-shaped globes, one to each post, affixed to neat brackets, while in the outlying sections the lights are placed at intervals of 100 yards. The lamps are 250 watt, frosted with large porcelain shades and are a great improvement over the old are lamps.

Mr. Ftank Bradford, brother of Mr. George Bradford of town, died at his home in Ottawa on Wednesday night, after an illness extending ever between three and four years. He was a comparatively young man, being only 55 years of age. He was a stonemason by trade, and was well known here; having worked in Almonte for some time years ago. Mrs. Bradford is still living.

The death occurred at Haileybury on Wednesday, February 7th, of Mr. Aarou Barnett, who was born in Almonte in 1829, and for many years had his home here. Until a few months ago he resided with his son, Mr. Robert Barnett, at 660 Gilmour street, Ottawa, at which time he went to reside with a daughter, Mrs. John McFarlane, at Haileybury. He is survived by two sons, Robert of Ottawa, and William of Pittsburg; two daughters — Mrs. W. Banning, of Winnipeg; and Mrs. John McFarlane, of Haileybury.

Almonte and Ramsay people heard with regret of the death on Monday last of Elizabeth Foster, wife of Mr. John Oates, governor of the Lanark county gaol. Deceased was one of Ramsay township's finest women, and is remembered for her kindly disposition and generous hospitality. She was sixty years of age, and leaves one son and two daughters, with the husband, to mourn fer her.

Under the auspices of the Parish Guild of St. Paul's church, the operetta, "The Wild Rose," was put on in the town hall Monday evening, by Carleton Place talent, under the direction of Mr. F. G. Mann, organist of the Anglican church there. The acting and costumes were both good, and the whole play was much enjoyed by those present. Between the acts solos were given by Miss L. Moore, and Messer. McCafferty and G. Dummert of Car part were entertained at a supper by members of the Parish Guild.

PERTH.

Mr. Wm. Earle, late of the Albion Hotel here, has leased the Cecil Hotel (the old Allan House) and is putting it in good shape to accommodate the public. The bed-rooms, dining room, estunda and the inside generally is receiving paint, paper and other decorations, and in the near future Mr. Earle will have a comfortable hotel.

On account of the shortage of clopes

On account of the shortage of globes, many of the town street lights are out. The cold weather and frost has a tendency to break the globes, and at present they are hard to replace.

The Gazette says: A very quiet wedding was solemnized Tuesday morning at 8,30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. McGregor, Walter Street, when their daughter, Annie V., was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Harry N. Carson, Rev. S. G. Brown performing the ceretmony. The bride was becomingly gowned in a dress of navy blue taffeta with the company of the company. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Carson drove to Carleton Place en route for New York and from there they will stake a trip to Florida and California. On their return they will make their home at Boston, Mass. The many sfriends of the bride extend congratuations and best wishes for future prosperity to her and Mr. Carson. perity to her and Mr. Carson.

Municipal World Explains Law.

In the last issue of the Municipal World the following question is asked —"Local option has been in force here five years the first of May last. Under the Prohibition Act now in force does the hotel have the benefit of its business assessment cut off and a reduction of the property assessment if approved by the Council in effice?" Here is the answer given—"Only holders of tavern licenses cancelled by the Ontario Temberance Act are entitled to exemption from tax on business assessment for 1916."
