SATISFACTION

(A True Story)

After a long chilly ride on a draughty street car, you reach your home—step inside the door, then as the bright genial warmth surrounds and envelops you, all the cold and dampness is forgotten and happiness reigns—you are satisfied.

Dinner is served, the dining room is warm and comfortable (without being unduly hot and dry)—the children are bright-eyed, happy and hungry—flowers bloom on the table and in the windows—the meal is excellent—once more you are satisfied.

After dinner—your favorite chair with your pipe in the cosy and warm sitting or living room, chatting with your wife over the day's events—the children playing or busy with their home lessons—everything calm and serene—again you are satisfied.

The children are put to bed—all is quiet. Outside you hear the wild whistling of the wind, the whirling snow is fast covering the ground and the timbers and swaying trees creak and snap with reports that speak of rapidly lowering temperature. Inside, the kiddies, your wife and yourself are warm and contented—you are fully satisfied.

Then comes bedtime. Your bedroom is just as warm as the rest of the house. You undress with leisure and comfort. You retire—all through the long night the heat remains constant and your family and yourself are enabled to enjoy plenty of sound healthy sleep—sleep that makes you satisfied.

The winter passes and as you total and compare your coal bills, you find that you have spent less than last year by many dollars and that the PEASE "ECONOMY" HEATING SYSTEM you installed "Pays for itself by the coal it saves."
You are completely satisfied.

Toast and Toast

There is the thick slice of toast, lightly browned on each side. There is the thin toast which has been done to a crisp, so that it crunches up like a biscuit, and there is also the medium toast, that is crisp but still not hard on the teeth. Which do you prefer?

Drop in and get one of our electric toasters; have it on your breakfast table, and get just the toast that you yourself prefer.
