

A Little Peep Into The Future

["No one can say that the end of the war is yet in sight. Perhaps it will rage for another fifty years."—Vide Daily Press.]

Yarrow Annex, 1980. "Got any 'Yaps' to-day?"

A certain member of the Jewish faith when informed that his son had won the Victoria Cross exclaimed to his friend who brought the news to him, "Vall, look here, olt jap, you know der King bedder 'un me, Vould you mind arskin him if id vould mak mudch difference if he gave my boy der Victoria Station, instead of der Cross. Vot a fine voiekshop id vould make."
