

CLASSIFIEDS

The Rules: Classifieds are a free service offered by The Brunswickan to the staff and students of UNB and STU. Content: 30 words or less each of which should be inoffensive on its own, or in conjunction with others. Duration of publication: One week. Disclosure: Classifieds are not confidential. If you are ashamed to submit your name with your classified, then it's not for us. Please don't use someone else's name. We will check. (Names are not necessarily printed, but we like to have them for our own records. We're anal that way.) When submitting a classified in person, bring your ID. Inclusion: Acceptance of a classified does not guarantee publication. There are many many places to lose things in this office. Especially if that thing is your sanity. And finally: The Brunswickan reserves the right to refuse to publish any classified. Offensive classifieds have as much chance of getting published as UNB closing on account of the weather.

Human Resource Development in Russia. The lecture series on Russia and Eastern Europe Today continues on Monday, January 13, with a presentation on the UNB-F campus. Brenda Stead will give a talk titled The Canada-Russia Project on Human Resource Development. The free public lecture will take place at 3:30 pm in Carleton Hall, Room 125. The Russian government is seeking advice and training from 5 countries about human resource development. Ms. Stead will describe her experiences in trying to create a workable system of human resource development in the new economy and society of post-Communist Russia. Sponsored by the Russian Studies Program at UNB and STU and the Russian Club, the lecture series focuses on changes in the former Soviet Union and its spheres of influence. Contact Allan Reid of UNB's department of German and Russian at 453-4636.

UNB's Amnesty International is meeting for the first time this year on Friday, Jan. 10, Room 218 in Carleton Hall. All are welcome.

Ski Barter - The snow is back, the ski hills are calling our names. If we could only get there. We could help improve your skiing. For we are certified ski coaches and instructors. Will split the gas. Look us up by E-mailing one of us at asag@unb.ca or m9zz@unb.ca or call 450-6802 for Christian or Dominic.

Bicentennial Choir - The choir is open to full and part time male and female students at UNB and STU. We've got a core of people returning from the fall term, but we're looking for more voices. No audition or previous experience is required - just a desire to sing good music in good company. Beginning January 6, rehearsals are every Monday from 7 to 9 pm in Room 23, Memorial Hall. The Bicentennial Choir performs contemporary and traditional choral music at a variety of on and off campus concert events and special celebrations. We're planning an exciting and rewarding program of performances and social activities for the '97 winter term. Phone Director Steve Peacock at 459-8166 OR... just come to our Monday night rehearsal.

Important notes from the Registrar A student wanting to transfer to another degree program must apply in writing to the Registrar for permission to do so, preferably before March 31. Applications received after that date will be considered provided space is available. It is recommended that transfer applications for degree programs requiring special forms, i.e. Nursing and Physical Education (Kinesiology), be submitted EARLY. Applications to transfer are available at the Registrar's Office on both campuses. January 31 is the deadline for BEd applications. Contact the Faculty of Law for their policy.

BEd Deadline January 31 The deadline date for applications to the BEd consecutive and BEd concurrent programs is January 31, not March 31. Students in their final year of the BA, BCS, BSc, BPE, or BBA programs are invited to apply to the BEd consecutive. Students in their first or second year of the BA, BSc, BBA, BPE (BKin), or BCS programs, are eligible to apply to the BEd concurrent program. Please consult the undergraduate calendar or contact Diane Shannon, Faculty of Education (453-3527), for further details. Applications, transfer request forms, and BEd supplementary forms are available at the Registrar's Office.
