— AGATHA CHRISTIE

Nearly half a million students can't be wrong.

While I was never one to simply go along with the crowd, I certainly side with the nearly half a million students in Canada who took the train last year to visit family and friends or take a well-deserved break away from it all.

Where else but on the train can you get up and walk around, enjoy a stunning view, a complimentary meal on many routes, rest, catch up on your studies, travel with a group of friends, meet new people along the way and, in many cases, have the superb convenience of downtown-to-downtown service too? I honestly haven't a clue where else but on the train.

And with students getting to travel at 33% off the regular fare simply by showing their student cards*, the real mystery to me would be not taking the train every time you take a trip. Even the redoubtable Hercule Poirot would be stumped there.

*Student discount not applicable on Fridays and Sundays between 12 noon and 6:00 p.m. on intercity trips anywhere between Québec City and Windsor or anywhere between Halifax and Fredericton (trains 11 and 12) or between Moncton and Campbellton (train 15 only) except when travelling to a destination outside these routes. Student discount is not applicable at anytime on any route between December 15th, 1989 and January 3rd, 1990 or between June 1st and September 30th, 1989 when sleeping car accommodation is purchased except on the Atlantic, The Ocean and The Chaleur.

Take the train. There's nothing quite like it!
