

1 statement and the others that he had given you?

2 A. Well, it was quite obvious that they varied.

3 Q. And the accused did not apparently wish to 4 read over this statement? A. No, he did not. He

5 was asked the question, "Do you wish to read this

6 statement over yourself?" position you hold with the 7 India? Q. How many pages are there in this? He Indians,

8 did it? A. Seven pages, Mr. Lickers. my confession on the 9 day? Q. Seven pages; and you did not ask the accused

10 to sign at the bottom of each one of these pages?

11 A. I did not hear that question. peculiar position

12 you? Q. You did not ask the accused to sign his name

13 on the bottom of each one of these? A. He was asked

14 to initial the bottom of each page, which he did.

15 Q. And did he do that? A. He did, sir. the 16 Hill? Q. Initialed each page? A. He signed the last

17 page, which is page 7, immediately at the bottom of

18 his statement; and he initialed page 6, page 5, page

19 4, page 3, page 2 and page 1. ink it would not be

20 proof? Q. And is that the last time you saw the ac-

21 cused, then? A. Yes, that is the last time I saw

22 him until this--want me to say to the jury just now?

23 Q. He never asked to see you at any time after 24 that? A. No, he did not. see?

25 HIS LORDSHIP: Q. What date was that? That was 26 February 24th? A. February 24th, your lordship.

27 MR. LICKERS: That is all. etion has this made

28 HIS LORDSHIP: Any re-examination, Mr. Wallace?

29 MR. WALLACE: Yes, my lord. made a very vast

30 alteration in the timetable. I have about five