Ottawa, July 24, 1922.

Hugh R. Ross, Esq.,
MacGregor,
Man.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of July 20th is to hand during Mr. Meighen's absence. Mr. Meighen is at present enjoying a few days' vacation in Eastern Quebec, and it is his intention to proceed from there to carry out a crowded programme of summer appointments, which will keep him away from the city until about the first week in September. I will, however, see that your letter is brought to his attention at the earliest possible moment.

Yours faithfully,

Private Secretary.

Dict. by Rex Crossdell.
