

of the month. Such particulars should always be furnished without being asked for.

With reference to Messrs Lyon & Co's indebtedness you should establish and hold a lien on the timber cut by them, and if you find it necessary you will exercise all the powers which the law will permit for securing and making the amount of their indebtedness.

This matter should have formed the subject of a