Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, the Canadian Institute of Chemistry and the Technical Service Council consent, the Director may utilize The Wartime Bureau of Technical Personnel, which is operated pursuant to Order in Council P.C. 780 dated the twelfth day of February, nineteen hundred and forty-one, for the administration of Part III and may for that purpose appoint the Director of the said Bureau as ^{for} Assistant Director of Selective Service under these regulations; and in such event the said Bureau shall, without affecting the said Order in Council, be subject to the control and supervision of the Director.

804. The Essential Work (Scientific and Technical Personnel) Regulations, 1942, The Selective Service Regulations, 1942, The National War Services Regulations, 1940 (Recruits), Order in Council P.C. 1445 dated the second day of March, nineteen hundred and forty-two, Order in Council P.C. 2254 dated the twenty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and forty-two, and Order in Council P.C. 7994 ^{dated} of the fourth day of September, nineteen hundred and forty-two, are ^{repealed}.

805. All proceedings taken under any Order in Council or regulation ^{repealed} by these regulations shall, so far as consistently may be, be taken up and continued under and in conformity with the provision of these regulations, if any, substituted for the regulation or Order in Council so repealed.

806. These regulations shall come into force on the first day of December, nineteen hundred and forty-two.
