Jack Ballington called last week & I hope ~~Jack Ballington~~ ~~was the best~~. I cannot recall what was said, then I made a note of "no blind" which I later to mean that he said he was no longer blind (see before)

Miss Ballington (to) 'home'
The next home to appear was home. Joan soon discovered that was Godfrey's grandmother. She said from my home to Godfrey. Tell him that I ~~could~~ ^{had} remembered him and loved him - Godfrey was a darling. Miss Ballington a lot.
The voice was very sweet.

Mr. Sharp came to conclude his evening. ^{Said he hoped we had} enjoyed our talk. ^{in writing me a} ^{he} said something about, ^{loving} ^{well} ^{being} well and doing well. - (I think there was a reference to ^{being} ^{being} ~~who have gone before but can not say~~ ^{it may have been about} he wanted for us. I think it was, for he went on to speak of the Robin, as being 'ill at home' "let's have home" "fairly
- fairly gentle", he thought ^{we} should be "sociable" and have the students' hands and scraps, then they offered him no ^{of} Gladstone or being being about. ^{the people} something about a letter of offering and ^{concerned} ^{of} ^{the} people something was said about being "gentle" and
