

for their invaluable service freely and cheerfully rendered.

This little book is sent forth with the earnest prayer, that it may be used of God to help bring to a happy issue the portentous problems of our national life, on the proper solution of which depends the future destiny of our beloved land.

W. R. McINTOSH,
Elora, Ont., Dec. 1, 1910 Convener