

on that evening, the following provisions, which were accordingly forwarded by that steamer:

275 barrels of flour.
 50 barrels of pork.
 100 barrels of cornmeal.
 150 barrels of bisenits.
 20 chests tea.
 5 pun. molasses.
 3500 feet of boards.
 Blankets.

His Worship the Mayor, on behalf of the citizens of Halifax, cabled a message of sympathy to the Mayor and citizens of St. John's and informed the Mayor of St. John's that arrangements had been made for forwarding provisions by the "Ulunda," and a message in reply was subsequently received thanking the citizens of Halifax for their kindness and sympathy, and stating that thousands of people at St. John's were actually destitute in consequence of the fire.

On Saturday evening the citizens' committee sent the following despatch to the relief committee at St. John's:

"Ulunda and H. M. S. Blake sailed at 8 o'clock this evening. Blake has canvas and provisions. Also will ship you 100 barrels pork by Portia on Monday. Wire us for anything you urgently need."

In accordance with the resolution adopted at the meeting of citizens on Saturday a public meeting of citizens was held on Monday morning, July 11th, at 10 o'clock, at which hour a very large number of citizens assembled at the City Council Chamber in the City Hall, where the meeting took place. At this meeting Mr. S. M. Brookfield, on behalf of the citizens committee, reported what the committee had done and the report was adopted.

On motion a committee of three citizens from each Ward of the city was appointed to solicit subscriptions for the relief of the sufferers.