

It is dark, but the stars are bright in the sky. The ground is white with snow.

3. Here is the church. What a blaze of light we see as we go in! What bright smiles and glad hearts! What songs of joy we hear! The church is decked with green.

4. The priest and deacons wear robes of gold. The boys that wait on them are all on their knees. The Christ-Child fills the world with joy.

5. Can we give Him any thing? Yes, we can give Him the love of grateful hearts. That is the gift He is glad to have from us.

6. Why do all good boys and girls have gifts on this day? It is to make them think of the three
