

and the best told. To do this successfully, you will have to lead the conversation and not let the ladies know they are talking purposely. Another way is to assign topics as for a conversation party, giving such topics as: "My first attempt at making bread," "My first housecleaning," "Unexpected guests," "My first pie," etc. Or, ask each guest to write her first house-keeping experience (some funny incident) and bring it. Have the papers read aloud, but not the names. Let the guests guess whose the experiences are. Use this contest.

What stitch is:

Hard to live with? (Cross stitch.)

A part of a cough? (Hemstitch.)

A part of a window? (Blindstitch.)

Is found on a fowl? (Featherstitch.)

Is a fish and something everyone has? (Herring-bone.)

Is made of many links? (Chainstitch.)

Is not forward? (Backstitch.)

Is useless without a key? (Lockstitch.)

Repeats itself? (Over and over stitch.)

For a prize for the best answers give a little leather sewing case fitted with needles and thread.

A "RUSHING" TEA FOR SORORITY.

Generally speaking, one will use their sorority colors in flowers and ribbons and their insignia cut from paste-board and covered with tissue paper of the desired color. A gigantic insignia would make a suitable wall