

But as the heaven is high above the earth : so great hath been his mercy toward us.

We found trouble and heaviness : we were even at death's door.

The waters of the sea had well-nigh covered us : the proud waters had well-nigh gone over our soul.

The sea roared : and the stormy wind lifteth up the waves thereof.

We were carried up as it were to heaven, and down again to the deep : our soul melted within us, because of the trouble.

Then cried we unto thee, O Lord, and thou didst deliver us out of our distress.

Blessed be thy Name, who didst not despise the prayer of thy servants : but didst hear our cry and hast saved us.

Thou didst send forth thy commandments : and the windy storm ceased, and was turned into a calm.

O let us therefore praise the Lord for his goodness, and declare the wonders that he hath done, and still doeth for the children of men.

Praised be the Lord daily : even the Lord that helpeth us, and poureth his benefits upon us.

He is our God, even the God of whom cometh salvation : God is the Lord by whom we have escaped death.

Thou, Lord, hast made us glad through the operation of thy hands : and we triumph in thy praise.

Blesseth be the Lord God : even the Lord God who only doeth wond'rous things.

And blessed be the Name of his Majesty forever : and let every one of us say, Amen, Amen.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.
