ADVERTISE IN THE ADVOCATE

BOOK TABLE.

In writing to advertisers please mention the Farmer's Advocate.

We have received from the Secretary, E. K. Morris, Indianapolis, Ind., Vol. II. of the National (U. S.) Berkshire Record Association, a volume of 285 pages, an increase of 63 pages over Volume I., issued May, 1894. The price by mail is $2.65; Volumes I. and II., $4. The Association has now 63 stockholders, and represents 17 States. This volume contains the annual address of President F. O. Lash, Bloomington, Ill.; a history of Berkshire swine; the pedigrees of boars from 567 to 1175, and sows, from 1084 to 2200; list of transfers; indices of boars, swine, and owners.

We have received from W. W. Chapman, Room 32, Fitzalan House, Arundel St., Strand, London, W. C., Eng., Secretary of the British Southdown Sheep Breeders' Association, a copy of Vol. IV., Southdown Flock Book, containing the pedigrees of rams from 1283 to 1732; ewes, 461 to 692; also list of members, rules and by-laws; a condensed sketch of 47 flocks, which we consider an exceedingly valuable feature; schedule of prize-winners, etc. In every respect it is a capital volume. The Association is being strongly supported, and is progressing. The export trade of 1894 was in excess of 1893; registered Southdowns being exported to America, Australia, France, Russia, and Sweden. An increasing importance is attached to export certificates issued with every registered sheep exported. Among the prefatory remarks we note the following:—"The many excellencies of the Southdown,—the hardy constitution, adaptability to almost any climate, habit of thriving on bare pasture, generous return for good feeding, comparative immunity from foot rot, and less liability to 'fly' (from the density of its fleece), general adaptability to improve other breeds by 'crossing,' beauty of character, fine quality of mutton, and excellence of wool,—only required to become known to be thoroughly appreciated by home and foreign flock owners."

STOCK GOSSIP.

THE RIDEAU STOCK FARM.

On a recent trip through Eastern Ontario, the writer had the pleasure of visiting the Rideau Stock Farm, which is located a couple of miles north of Kingston, owned and operated by Mr. F. A. Folger, who is extensively engaged in the breeding of high-class trotters, and Holstein-Friesian cattle. Some forty head of trotting stock are kept on the farm, and some very promising stock was seen. We found Mr. Folger busy speeding some of his horses on his private track, and some excellent movers were under training. Holstein-Friesians.—The majority of the large herd of high-class Holsteins were out on the pastures, and in looking through them, many exceptionally good individuals were seen, both among the breeding and young stock. The cows are large, and still not rough, and the majority carried very large, well-shaped udders, which indicated heavy milking propensities, a quality which highly recommends the Holsteins. In rearing calves or hogs, it is decidedly advantageous, after the butter or cheese has been secured, to have a generous supply of skim-milk or feeding. The bull at the head of this herd is an excellent animal, and the young stock are of a desirable dairy type. A visit at the Rideau Stock Farm would amply repay the lover of fast horses or those interested in the dairy business.

THE WARLABY SALE.

As advertised in the FARMER'S ADVOCATE, Messrs. John Thornton & Co. conducted a sale of Warlaby Shorthorns at Northallerton, Eng., on June 22nd. The occasion was honored by a large company, representing the principal breeders from all parts of the United Kingdom, France, New Zealand, North and South America, met to witness the sale of the bulk of the celebrated Booth herd, only a few old animals and the newly-born calves having been retained. It was a noteworthy gathering, and the results of the sale attested the favor with which Booth Shorthorns are still regarded among men well-qualified to judge of their merits. The scene round the sale ring was a brilliant one, recalling memories of the old "golden days" when the Shorthorn reigned supreme. The bidding was spirited, and the first-class lots excited keen competition. The highest price of the day was reached by the heifer Lady Magdalen Ribby, which brought 390 gs., and was knocked down to Mons. de Clercq. In the bulls, Mr. Talbot-Crosbie secured Sir Gilbert Studley at 355 gs., while a yearling, Sir Lawrence Ribby, fell to Sir Walter Gilbey at 205 gs. Among the largest buyers were Colonel North and Lord Polwarth. The prices realized were as follows:—Thirty-seven cows, £5,161 16s., average £139 10s. 2d.; eleven bulls, £1,334 12s., average £121 7s.; total for forty-eight animals, £6,496 8s.

NOTICE.
