Rev. Father Phelan Honored.

Rev. Father Phelan Honored. The Peterborough Examiner lof July 14 responses of the prime structure of the product of the honors he has reasored since freed proud of the honors he has received since his elevation to the priesthood about two years ago. These honors do not consist in preferment in office, but in the love and es-teem which his faithful and loving discharge of his prestry duties have engendered, both in his brethren of the clergy and in the hearts of the people among whom he has labored as a pastor. For the past nine months he has been tak-ing the duties of the parish of St. Joseph's, Duro, during the lamentable illness of Kev. Father Kielty, who has, as his many friends rejoice to learn, so lar recovered as to be able to resume his position as pastor. A practical evidence was this morning fins stay amongst them. They were unwill ing to have him leave them, but his Lordship the Bishop, having transferred Rev. Father Phelan to the parish of Trout Creek, he of nacessarily retired from the parish of St. Joseph's. But the parishiomers could not permit him

But the parishioners could not permit him to leave without expressing their affection for him as a priest, and their appreciation of his services. And the trouble they took to do so may be regarded as an index of the depth and earnestness of their feelings. This morning about three score and ten of the people of Douro, young and old, ladies and gentlemee, drove to town and waited upon Rev. Father Phelan at his father's residence, Mr. Wm. O'Brien, township clerk, read the following address from the people: mathe Rev. C. I. Phelan.

To the Rev. C. J. Phelan :

To the Rev. C. J. Fhelan : Rev. Father — We, the members of St. Joseph's church, of the parish of Douro, have congregated together on this auspicious occa-sion for two purposes. First, we sincerely thank you for the kind-ness shown by you to all our members, both old and young, of this, our parish. Yas, reverend and dear Father, since you came to our midst, we perceived we were blessed by a good and holy priest that was ever ready to sacrifice everything most dear to the human heart for the good, both spiritual and corporal, of the people. over whom our beloved Bishop, nuder the guidance of Almighty God. had placed you.

Hishop, ander the guidance of Aringary God. Everyone amongst us in their hour of trials and sickness, ever jound a most consoling friend in the person of their beloved pastor, who was always ready to console, and, like the good Samaritan, to comfort them as far as pos-sible. Again, dear Father, no one ever ap-who was always ready to console, and, like the good Samaritan, to comfori them as far as pos-sible. Again, dear Father, no one ever ap-proached you for either advice or consolation, but went away rejoicing and begging God to bless and protect Father Phelan. Weil may the people of this parish learn to love and respect a priest going amongst us, doing the will of his Heavenly Father. In the second place, we were hoping that you would be left in our parish, but as our be-loved Bishop has ordained otherwise, we bow in humble submission to his will. But we bope, dear Father, that in the event of the Bishop deciding upon a change or removal of a priest from our parish in the future that His Lordship will be pleaked to appoint you as par-tab. Priest.

Lordship will be pleased to appoint you as par-ish priest. We hope, Rev. Father, that you will accept this small purso as a proof of the sentiments contained in this short address. Begging you, dear Father, to remember from time to time in your holy Masses and prayers the people of St. Joseph's parish, and we on our part assure you of our humble prayers. May God shower down His choicest blessings on you in your new field of labor, and may your good work be crowned by success In this life and a wreath of eternal glory await you be-yond the grave.

They had left an impression upon him that should last forever, and which would be a source of strength and comfort to him in his future labors in the vineyard of the Lord. The longer he lived among them, the better he knew, the more he loved them. The priest was, he said, ordained to do the work of God, to continue the mission of Christ upon earth. The mission is one of peace, in sooth-ing the trials and troubles which necessarily fall to the lot of man; of charity, in extending a helping hand to those in need; of mutual forbearance, in pardoning the trivial imper-fections to which human nature was subject. This was, and with God's help, ever would be, his motto through life. In conclusion, he again thanked them for the kind address and exceeding generous purse, and asked fond remembrance in their prayers, and in return would promise to re-member both them and their children at God's holy altar. Rev. Father Phelan concluded with the words: "May God bless you and may His choicest gifts and blessings be yours." After hearty remarks from others and the

TRINITY COLLEGE FOR CATH-OLIC WOMEN.

As reports have been prematurely circu-lated of late in the daily press, it was deemed advisable by those immediately concerned to publish the following authoritative state-ment:

to publish the following authoritative state-ment: Since the establishment of the Catholic University of America at Washington, en-quiries have been repeatedly made as to what the Catholic Church is prepared to do for the higher education of women. An im-portant step in that direction is announced to day, for it has been decided to establish in Washington a Woman's College, of the same grade as Vassar, thus giving young women an opportunity for the highest col-legiate instruction. The institution is to be known as Trinity College, and will be under the direction and control of the Sisters of Notre Dame, whose motherhouse is in Namur, Belgium. This congregation of religious women is devoted exclusively to teaching ; their colleges in Belgium. England, and Scotland, and their academies and parochial schools in the United States, have won for them high distinction in educa-tional work. Trinity College will offer to its students all the advantages of the best Ameri-can colleges, and will have, in addition, those benefits that come from education given under the direction of experienced, religious teachers. benefits that come from education given under the direction of experienced, religious teachers. The Sisters of Notre Dame have purchased twenty acres of land near the gateway of the Catholic University, at the junction of Mich-igan and Lincoln avenues, and plans will be at once prepared for a suitable college build-ing. The establishment of this college in the city of Washington offers opportunities to the student which can be found in no other city of Washington offers opportunities for institutes; the scientific collections of the Gov-ernment, etc., present opportunities for in-tellectual development that cannot be equalled elsewhere in America; while its close proximity to the Catholic University will give to the students of this college the rare privilege of following regularly the public lecture courses, private courses by specialists, and it is hoped of one day enjoy-ing the honors of the University degrees. The College will have the benefit of direc-tion for some time, and has met with the cordial approbation of his Eminence the Car-dinal Archbishop of Baltimore and Chancel-lor of the University, whe velcomes its es-tablishment in his diocese and near the Uni-versity as a providential step in the higher education of Catholic women. DIAMOND JUBILEE DAYS IN THE LONDON CHURCHES.
(For the CATHOLIC RECORD.)
Truly a magnificent spectacle at the Brompton Oratory on the Sunday preceding the great twenty-second — the Sunday set aside for a nation's thanksgiving.
Those unlucky ones who had not thought of securing tackets for seats could not get one at any price, and the result was that the crowd at the end of the church was enormous. Hundreds of curious people had collected, as people will collect, outside, and here and there amongst them could be seen the scarlet of the royal liveries.
Thise duck the duck of the church was enormous. Hundreds of curious people had collected, as people will collect, outside, and here and there amongst them could be seen the scarlet of the royal liveries.
Thise the church was filled with a blaze of uniforms and gold and jawelled orders, and the clanking of swords.
These royal primees knelt in front on priedieus draped with cloth of gold. They were: H. M. the Grand Duke Franz Ferdinand of Austria, H. R. H. Prince Rapert of Bavaria, T. R. H. the Duke of Oporto, Prince Frederick Augustus of Saxony, and Duke Albert of Wurtemburg.
These royal personages had in attendance upon them their military attaches. They were conducted to their places by the Dake of Norfolk, Earl Marshal of England, who wore his scarlet uniform with the Order of the Garter.
Just behund were the ambassadors and ministers of Catholic countries and their suites, including the French, Italian, Austrian and Spanish Envoys, the Belgian and Mexican Ministers, and those of Gnatemala, Brazil, Uruguay, the Argentine, Central America, Peru, Costa Rica and Paraguay.
The Hon. Richard Morton, assistant master of ceremonies at Backingham Palace, and Mr. Fitzlain Hope (who is a nephew of the Dake of Norfolk) in court dress, settled the order of precedence. They were assisted by several toreign office attaches and the little prothers of the Oratory in the Gardinal, looking as he always does – superb – charming toilettes. Altogether it was highly interesting and very impressive, and the cool grey marble pillars of the church were draped in purple crimson brocade, which gave a rich, warm tone to the whole. Last Sunday T. R. H. the Prince and Princess of Naples and suite were present at the High Mass at Saint Peter's Italian church, Hiatton Garden. The quarter in the centre of which the church is situated is thickly populated with Italians, all very much alive and interested. Large crowds lined the Clerkenwell Koad, and every now and then the conspicuous figure of a professional model might be seen. The Prince and Princess is a magnificent woman. Her husband's head only reached her shoulder as they stood side by side. Besides being a beautiful and remarkable looking woman, she claims the special inter-est attached to a bride. After Mass was over and they had grone, I walked through some of the narrow streets where the bokey-pokey man and the organ grinder live, and the criticisms from the female portion of the community in favor of the Princess were expressive and vehement. Yesterday, the feast of Saints Peter and Paul, the Papal Eavoy poutificated at the Italian church and the quarter was again interested, and excitedto see the Royal livery in their midst.

The rest of the second nowever, he professed his readiness to give them hospitality, and a way of living, and he added that he gave them full liberty to preach their relig ion and to convert whomsoever they could. St Augustine's Landing in England.

Daring England's ages of faith, Rev. Fr. The king listened attentively to this appeal, we are told, but answered that he was not able at once to accept the new faith and

Such an institution under your able and experienced direction, and in the shadow of our great University, will, I am convinced, offer educational advantages to our young women, which cannot be found elsewhere in our country. It will relieve the University authorities from the embarrassment of refusing women admission, many of whom have already applied for the privilege of following our courses, and will he a licht and a protection in faith and morals to that class of students, while pursuing the highest branches of knowledge. Your work with that of the University will complete and crown our whole system of Catholic education; will be a blessing to our country and a glory to our Church.
Praying God's blessing nost abundantly on your and all your works, I am, dear Mother, Faithfully yours in Xto., James Cardinal Gibbons.
OPINION OF THE VERY REV, DOCTOR CONATY.

OFINION OF THE VERY REV. DOCTOR CONATY, RECTOR OF THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY, Very Rev. Dr. Conaty, Rector of the Catho-lic University, when quesiloned about this matter, expressed himself as delighted with the prospect of a first-class college for our Catholic women, and said that he welcomed it as a yreat step in higher education, supplying, as it does, a great want for the collegiate in struction of women.

Cationic evoluer, and shar has here belowed to as a great step in higher education, supplying, as it does, a great want for the collegiate in struction of women. He said will the University, as such, was not prepared to pledge itself for anything, yet he was satisfied that everything that could be done consistent with the interests of the Uni-versity, would be freely rendered for the en-couragement of those who have so generously undertaken this great enterprise. He ex-pressed himself as consident of the ability of the Sisters of Notre Dame to establish a first-class college, as he has had experience with them as teachers during the whole period of his ministry, and could certify to the through-ness of their instruction and to the evident de-termination of being satisfied with nothing less than the best, in all the departments of educa-tion in which they were engaged. He feels confident that great success awaits the enter-prise of the University; for in so doing they desire to be in close touch with the wishes of the Bishops of the Church, under whose direction the University is placed. At least one answer is given to the en-quiries constantly repeated, of our Oatholic women with regard to higher education; for the University frequently receives letters from all parts of the University and count of the great correruing it. Catholic Representation.

Catholic Representation. Strationd, July 17, 1897. To the Elitor of the CATHOLIC RECORD: Sir,-1 see some illusion in the Canadian Freeman of the 33th ult., with regard to the Hon. John O'Donoghue calling a meeting of the Catholics of Ontario to consider the posi-tion of our people. After talking to a num-ber of our friends, I find there is a great de-sire, that he, or some other prominent Catho-lic, should make such a move, and they agree, with Mr. Clyne, of the great necessity at the present time of such a move. It was said some time ago that the Ontario Government had certain names on the slate to fill the vacancy if any misfortune befell our good and just Mr. Harty. We hope it will be a long time before they have any such oppor-unity. Still life is very uncertain with us all., Now Mr. Editor, we should allow no Gov-ernment to make such a selection for us. Now Mr. Editor, we should allow no Gov-ernment to make such a selection for us. We ought to have something to say, whom that person should be, who holds such a repre-sentative position. Past experience has fully justified us in making this move. I am fully aware that the Hon. John O'Donoghue and Deter Deue of Thermis how because and Peter Ryan of Toronto, have been approached several times to take this matter in hand. They would be the right persons, as they know nearly every Catholic in the province. They use the severy catholic in the province. They know their opinions on the different questions of the day, and have heard from their lips often, where the dissatisfaction is non some very important questions. These men have been the interceders for their friends for years. If they will persist in not moving, why not some one else. "Catholic."
