A WOMAN, regular in her attendance at public worship, and who took care to be always in time, was asked, how it was she could always come so early; she answered, very wisely, "that it was part of her religion not to disturb the religion of others."

"I HAVE heard one say," observes Dr. Mather, "that there was a gentleman mentioned in the 19th chapter of the Acts, to whom he was more indebted than to any other man in the world. This was he whom our translation calls the town-clerk of Ephesus, whose counsel it was to 'do nothing rashly.' Upon any proposal of consequence, it was usual with him to say 'he will first advise with the town-clerk of Ephesus.'"

GRACE is a plant, where'er it grows,
Of pure and heavenly root;
But fairest in the youngest shows,
And yields the sweetest fruit.
