NEW BOOKS.

Days of My Years.

By JOSEPH CROSS, D. D., LL.D., author of "Edens of Italy," "Coals from the Altar," etc., etc. With Portrait. 12mo. tasteful cloth binding, $1.50.

"That nobody can tell a good story better than a clergyman is universally admitted, and "Days of My Years," by Dr. Joseph Cross, is a collection of wonderfully good stories, related with the greatest spirit and animation."—Boston Post.

"Eminently readable, the book casts abundant side-lights on American life, and the varied races, nationalities and heterogeneous elements of which our English-speaking, but not English-descended nation is composed."—Literary World.

Christ in the New Testament.

By THOMAS A. TADBALL, D.D., Rector of St.
Paul's Church, Camden, N. J. With an Introduction by S. D. McCONNELL, D.D. 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

"We note on nearly every page the extensive reading of its author and the judicial mind, which not only attempts but proves the authenticity of the New Testament Books and their drift and purpose. The first lecture is to us the most striking; but all show learning and the Christian spirit. We know of no work which in like compass introduces so well the various books of the New Testament."—The Southern Churchman.

Thoughts on Life, Death and Immortality.

Selected from the unpublished writings of the late Samuel Smith Harris, Bishop of Michigan. By CHARLOTTE WOOD SLOCUM. 12mo, cloth, gilt edges, $1; cloth plain, 75 cents.

"These thoughts of Bishop Harris are simply admirable."—Southern Churchman.

"The work of selection has been performed by Charlotte Wood Slocum, who knew Bishop Harris intimately, and was fully aware of his extreme sensibility to print. She has done her task with taste and judgment, and both religion and literature have been enriched by her efforts."— Chicago Post.
