The soul is like a garden that cannot safely be left unattended; for weeds grow much faster than wholesome plants, and there is no beauty of holiness that can be expected to come up of itself and keep itself free from contamination and evil contact. The sacrament of life is that flower of the holy life. It irradiates the soul with beauty, it fills it with fragrance, and sheds peace and rest upon the nature. It is the secret of the highest, devoutest natures. We look up to them with awe and longing, feeling that their gifts cannot be attained by us; but the power of love is open to all. It is especially the attribute of the humble heart.
