These First Purchasers Agree on Its Usefulness

From L. A. RUZICK, Viking, Alta.—

"I surely am more than pleased with it."

From A. M. HURSHMAN, Kenex, Alta.—

"It is a good book and you ought to have no trouble selling it."

From F. S. KIMBALL, Sec.-Treas. Town of Raymond, Alta.—

"I think that your book is one of the very best of its kind, if not the best, I have ever seen. I like the type, the headings and the plain concise way in which the subject matter is grouped. The terms are made so simple that anyone can understand them and I am satisfied that if the farmers of Alberta could see the book the majority of them would purchase a copy."

"I shall find pleasure in recommending the 'Western Canada Law' whenever I have the opportunity."

Compiled by the best legal authorities in Western Canada in simple, understandable language, for use by the average man, the business man who works for others, the farmer who works for himself. This Law Editor has assembled the principal laws that govern us into book form, and at a price within the reach of all. If after five days you are not convinced this is the best law book for your purpose, return it to us in an unsoiled condition and get a refund of your money.

"FARM MANAGEMENT," By G. F. Warren

This is a vital subject to every farmer who is anxious to make progress, provide himself with a better home, educate his children and enjoy some of the comforts of life. The book entitled "Farm Management," by G. F. Warren, is regarded by all authorities as the very best information on the subject of farm management that has yet been published. The author has made a life-long study of the success due to the proper management of a farm business. Perhaps the most valuable portion of the book is that showing farmers how to keep simple records and accounts. This matter is set forth so clearly that even the most ignorant farmer can take a note-book and pencil and work out a system of bookkeeping that will show him whether he is making a profit or loss and which department pays him the best. Price, postpaid $2.00

"HOW TO SPEAK IN PUBLIC"

By Grenville Kleiser

The work of the organized farmers through their local associations in the three provinces during the past five years has developed a large number of good public speakers who are able to deal with important questions from the platform in a very able manner. One of the greatest needs in the organization today is for more young men to learn to express themselves before a gathering and to discuss the vital problems of the farmers in public. Many requests have come to The Guide for a book that will assist men and women to learn how to deliver public addresses. This book, by Kleiser, is the best one to be found on the subject. It explains the principles of vocal expression and voice culture, and instructs students in public speaking as to the best methods of emphasis and inflection. Price, postpaid $1.65
