

Nays

Messrs. Bell, and Taschereau.

So it was carried in the affirmative.

The fifth and sixth of the said resolutions being again severally read, and the question separately put thereon, the House divided on each.

Ycas 16

Nays 5

So they were carried in the affirmative.

The seventh to the tenth of the said resolutions, inclusive, being again severally read, and the question separately put thereon, the House divided on each.

Ycas 19

Nays 5

So they were carried in the affirmative.

The eleventh and last of the said resolutions being again read, and the question put thereon, the House divided.

Ycas 17

Nays 5

So it was also carried in the affirmative.

RESOLVED, That this House doth concur with the Committee in the said resolutions.

Mr. Stuart moved, seconded by Mr. Bernier, that a Committee of seven Members be appointed, to examine particularly the Rules of Practice of the Courts of Justice, in this Province; report, in detail, on the principal points wherein they are contrary and repugnant to the Laws of