

Ordered, That Mr. Butler, Mr. Burbidge, and Mr. White be the Committee of this House for that purpose.

And then adjourn'd till 11 o'Clock on Monday Morning.

Monday July 6th,

Bill from the Council to prevent Trespasses on Crown Lands.

The Council sent down a Bill, intituled An Act to prevent Trespasses upon Crown Lands, to which they desire the concurrence of this House.

And the said Bill was read.

Ordered, that it be read a second Time.

Mr. Archibald, having represented to the House, that he was prevented from attending the House in the Session of the General-Assembly last October, by Sickness, and that he did actually write a Letter to Mr. Speaker acquainting him thereof, (which Letter never came to Hand) and thereupon praying to be released from the Fine of Five Pounds, incurred for Non-attendance, and the House having taken the same into consideration. Resolved, that the said Fine be remitted.

And then the House adjourn'd till To-morrow Morning 10 o'Clock.

Tuesday July 7th, 1767.

Report of the Committee on the State of the Province Funds.

Mr. Butler from the joint Committee of the Council, and of this House, appointed to consider of the State of the Province Funds, reported the Proceedings of the said joint Committee therein.

Resolution thereon.

Resolved, That this House, will To-morrow Morning consider of Ways and Means to maintain the Credit of the Province and the Expences of Government.

And then adjourn'd till To-morrow Morning 10 o'Clock.

Wednesday