Message from the Council on the Bill relating to Fees of the Naval Officers.

His Majesty's Council acquainted the House by Message, that having had under Consideration the Bill sent up by this House for ascertaining the Fees of the Naval-Office in the several Ports of this Province (the Port of Halifax excepted)

They are of Opinion, That the Fees to be taken by the Naval Officer in the Outports of this Province, are settled by Act of Parliament, and therefore it is unnecessary to make a Law for that Purpose.
