For Sale by - H. W. PLETSCH

Landlord And Tenant.

A peculiar case has come to light in Owen Sound under the Local Option law. W. S. Bradley of Little Current, is owner of the Pacific hotel, Owen Sound. A man named Kelly was the nominal lessee of the bar, and was charged with keeping liquor for sale, and before the trial, he disappeared. Later Inspector Beckett found a quantity of whiskey hidden in the hotel stable, and then the occupant of the hotel swore that he did not own the liquor and had no jurisdiction over the stable. Inspector Beckett then laid information against Bradley, owner of the premises, who was convicted and fined $40. The later took steps to have the conviction quashed, but his judgment given recently, Justice Middleton refuses to interfere. "Undoubtedly," says his Lordship, there has been a flagrant breach of the law. Liquor has been kept for sale in the stable forming part of the hotel premises. The question is whether the accused, the landlord of the premises in question, who lives in the village of Little Current and who in no way authorized, nor was aware of the violation of the law taking place upon his property in Owen Sound, is, by virtue of the statute, to be conclusively guilty of the offence. I have to accept the law as I find it, and it is no part of my duty to criticise either its wisdom or its justice."

Barn and Contents Burned.

Yesterday at 7.30 a. m. Mrs. Charles Liefso's barn on 12th con. Brant was burned. In the building were about 1,600 bushels of grain and 60 tons of hay. The cause of the fire is unknown but it is supposed to have been from matches being thrown from the blower against the side of the barn. Mr. Gateman and all the hands at the threshing made a heroic effort to save the separator but in vain. Before they got out of the barn two men's coats, Schilling's and Schroeder's, were afire. The latter's was put out by a liberal application of cream as no water could be found convenient. There was no insurance on the separator but the barn and contents were insured for $2,100. The machine had been running only 15 minutes when the fire was noticed in the mow. The loss to Mrs. Liefso is a heavy one.—Chesley Enterprise.

WALKERTON.

Mr. Matthew Hudson, one of the oldest employees at R. Truax & Son's mill here, had the second finger of his right hand taken off by the rip saw on Monday morning last. The third finger on the injured hand was also badly lacerated by the saw. Besides being a permanent misfortune, the mishap will lay Mr. Hudson off duty for a time.

The home of Mrs. Samuel Paul on Scott street here has been placed under quarantine for scarlet fever, three of her children having contracted the disease last week. As this malady is more contagious than serious, no alarm is felt in the community, and but for the exhibition of the red card on the affected home, the citizens would readily forget that any such disease had a foothold in the town.

The well known ank justly celebrated Polmatier Sisters, who need no introduction to Walkerton, will again be at the opera house here on Friday evening Oct. 27th inst. They are musical artists who specialize in every kind of brass, reed and string instruments.

Another of the old pioneers of Carrick has passed away in the person of Mr. Radel of the South Line, whose death took place on Sunday the 15th inst. in his 63rd year. Mr. Radel was one of the pioneers of the Township of Carrick, having lived on the farm west of the G. T. R. station on the Teeswater road for a great many years. He was well known and well liked throughout this community. Besides a wife he leaves to mourn his loss one daughter, Mrs. Procknow of Carrick, and two sons Barney of Seattle and William of Brant. The funeral which took place on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock was largely attended.

WIT AND HUMOR

The husband arrived home much later than usual "from the office." He took off his boots and stole into the bedroom; but vain precaution, his wife began to stir. Quickly the panic-stricken man went to the cradle of his first-born and began to rock it vigorously.

"What are you doing there, Robert?" queried his wife.

"I've been sitting here for nearly two hours trying to get this baby asleep," he growled.

"Why, Robert, I've got him here in bed with me," said the spouse.

"What is that tall chimney for?" said a visitor to Kansas, pointing to a farmyard. "Is somebody putting up a factory in this lonely quarter?"

"No," was the reply. "That's just Joe Miller's well. Cyclone turned her inside out."

"He's the man of the hour."

"Isn't there ever a woman of the hour?"

"Yes; but it takes her an hour and a half."

Expects a Long Life.

"When Lord Strathcona made a hurried trip across the Atlantic the other day, intending to remain on this side of the water less than a week, people wondered how a man of 91 could maintain the pace set by this pioneer of Hudson Bay. There are some Canadians, however, who do not believe that his age has been correctly recorded. They say he is nearer 97 than 91, and believe that he expects to live until he reaches 111. They tell this story about him, at least: When, they say, he reached 94 years, he renewed the lease of his London house, he always attends to the details of such things personally, and when he presented the lease to his secretary for filing the latter exclaimed:

"Why, my Lord, the lease runs for seventeen years!"

"O, that's all right" Strathcona replied, with a smile: 'we can easily renew it at the end of that time.'"

That Bald Spot.

Don't let that bald spot grow! Go to your druggist at once and get a bottle of Harsian Sage and if that don't check the falling hair, and cause new hair to grow, nothing will.

Dandruff is the cause of baldness; dandruff germs cause dandruff. Parisian Sage kills the germs; eradicates dandruff, stops falling hair and itching scalp. We will refund your money, if it fails to do this in two weeks. Parisian Sage will cause the hair to grow, if the hair root be not dead. It causes the hair to grow thicker, more luxuriant, and puts new life into it.

The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package of Parisian Sage. It is sold for 50c. by all druggists or sent post paid by The Groux Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont., on receipt of price. Sold and guaranteed by John Coates.

An exchange says that it knows of men who would not polish their boots on Sunday, but who would as cheerfully blacken their neighbor's character on that day as any other. The longer we live the more we are convinced that there is nothing so good in this world as consistency and nothing that is harder to achieve.

The "Woman Question—Three Meals a Day"

This is the problem confronting the average housewife—a problem of vital importance to the home, and one best solved by a trip to our store and the purchase of

For the Woman Question is not only what to eat, but how to cook it, and you find the answer in Gurney-Oxford—first in construction, as well as convenience; first in facilities for control and readiness. The Divided Oven Flue Strip assures perfect baking because of its even heat-distribution, and in every detail the perfect construction of this Chancellor Range assures satisfactory cooking results.

Another phase of the question is economy, and we invite a visit to our store expressly that you may examine the marvelous fuel-saving device the

Oxford Economizer

Sold By LIESEMER & Co.

Gurney-Oxfords are the only stoves licensed to sell with this wonderful patent. It needs only to be set at a proper angle to hold heat for hours without attention. No fuel is wasted—a saving of 20 per cent.

The Grate is Reversible with strong teeth that save accumulation of clinkers and waste.

In point of appearance—nickel trimmings, beauty of design, etc.—the Gurney-Oxford has not a rival. Come to our store and find the best answer to the Woman Question—a Gurney-Oxford stove.

Statutory Provisions.

A lumberman was wrecked on a desert island in the Pacific Ocean and was slowly starving. Each day he walked the beach and searched the horizon for a sail. But he saw now sail, and Lord knows we know how hard it is to have day after day go by without a sail. Then he had an inspiration. He decided to write a message on a piece of paper, place it in a bottle and cast it adrift, in the hope that some vessel would find it floating and pick it up and come to the rescue. Being a lumberman, he had the bottle. He went down into his pocket after a piece of paper on which to write the message, and all he found was a fire insurance policy. He started to read it, and found enough provisions in it to last him six months.

In The Carpenter's Shop.

"Life's a hard grind," said the emery wheel.
"It's a perfect bore," returned the auger.
"It means nothing but hard knock for me," sighed the nail.
"You haven't as much to go through as I have," put in the saw.
"I can barely scrape along," complained the plane.
"And I am constantly being sat upon," added the bench.
"Let's strike," said the hammer.
"Cut it out!" said the chisel. "Here comes the boss."
And the aul was silence.

About Salt.

Salt is about the oldest industry in the world. In Italy, the cradle of the salt industry, it has been manufactured commercially for 2400 years. Salt is so necessary to existence that in some parts of the world tribes will sell the members of their families, in exchange for salt. Salt has been the cause of wars, and so important has it always been considered that in some places the passing of salt is established as a token of friendship, and women throw salt on a visitor as a friendly greeting. In some countries salt is so scarce that it is obtained through the ashes of grasses and a species of palm and other plants.

Quick Work.

At Beloit, Kansas, on October 11, what is believed to be a world record in transforming standing grain into bread, was established by W. S. Gabel, a farmer living near Beloit. Just thirty minutes elapsed between the time when the wheat was cut and when Mr. Gabel took the first bite of a biscuit which had been made from it. As soon as the grain was threshed, it was rushed a mile and a half to a mill and made into flour and then taken to a baker who made the biscuits. The previous record is said to be one hour.

MEN-YOU NEED NERVE

EARLY INDISCRETIONS AND EXCESSES HAVE UNDERMINED YOUR SYSTEM

The nerves control all actions of the body so that anything that debilitates them will weaken all organs of the system. Early indiscretions and excesses have ruined thousands of promising young men.
