Rich Men Insure

Insured for $412,403

The largest life insurance claim paid in 1912 on this continent was $412,403, on the life of Charles Silverson of New Ulm, Minn., and the second was $350,000 on the life of T. T. Reid of Montclair, N. J.
The largest in Canada was $143,750 to the beneficiary of Benjamin F. Pearson of Halifax, and the second, $135,352 on the life of Frederick W. Thompson of Montreal. The payment of $30,212 on Charles M. Hays was third.

The above extract is from a recent issue of a Toronto paper. All those men knew the value of life insurance, and availed themselves of its benefits—and what is true of them is true of almost every successful business man.

Since you must realize the necessity of making provision for your old age, if you live, or for your family in the event of your early death, can you do better than follow the example of such shrewd, prosperous men?

Our booklet, "A Few Facts," explains why you should place your insurance with The Imperial Life. Write for a copy today—it is very interesting and it's free.
