PARIS MAN WOUNDED

This morning's official casualty list contains the name of Pte. W. G. Baker of Paris, wounded.

BANK HOLIDAY

The banks of the city are closed to-day, keeping the King's birthday. The customs department is also closed, and the holiday is observed by the schools of the city.

NUPTIAL NOTES

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the residence of the First Baptist Church on Saturday, when the pastor, Rev. L. Brown, united in marriage Frank Armstrong and Melba Gardiner. The couple will reside near Burford.

BUILDING PERMITS

Mrs. W. Hall, 35 Egerton street, has obtained a permit for the erection of a $570 addition to her residence. A permit has been issued for a $200 addition to the home of J. M. Smith, 178 Marlboro street.

WANT DETAILS

The Soldiers' Aid Commission has requested their local secretary, Geo. MacDonald, to send complete details regarding the deaths of returned soldiers who have been buried in this district.

GOING AHEAD

The work of laying out the waterworks property recently acquired for the purpose of erecting houses in connection with the Dominion Steel Product Co.'s is steadily going ahead upon the plans prepared by Mr. Dunnington Grubb, landscape artist. It is expected that some ninety of the houses will be up by this fall.

GINGER ESSENCE BLINDS

"I hope the public will understand how dangerous it is to drink essence of ginger, and how cruel it is for druggists to sell the stuff, which is evidently being used by many people as a substitute for liquor," was a warning delivered by the Chief Coroner in Toronto. "Continued drinking of essence of ginger will inevitably be followed by blindness," was the startling declaration made by the Chief Coroner.

NOT GOING TO TEXAS

Cadets of the Royal Air Force will not migrate to Texas for their training next winter, according to present indications. Extensive building operations, which will cost many thousands of dollars, are contemplated in the Toronto Military District. Huts are to be erected at all the camps—Camp Borden, Deseronto, Beamsville, Hamilton, Armour Heights, Long Branch and Leaside. These will provide sleeping accommodation for all the cadets and men in training for the R.A.F. in Canada. Work is well under way at Long Branch, and the cadets there will soon sleep in huts instead of under canvas.

FIREMEN HAD TWO RUNS

At 1:30 Saturday afternoon the firemen were called out to 35 St. Paul's avenue, the residence of Geo. Sneath. Fire had started in a window sill and spread through the partition to the attic. The damage was slight. Immediately after another call came in, this time from 47 Walter street. Here an outburst had caught fire. Practically no damage was done, the occupants of nearby houses being able to put out the blaze without the assistance of the firemen.

CANADIAN PUBLISHERS MEET

Sessions of the annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association scheduled for June 13 and 14 will be held this year in the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, as in previous years. The number of members who have indicated their intention of attending the gathering is larger than in the case of any previous meeting, giving promise of one of the largest meetings in the history of the association. It was expected that Mr. Baker, United States Secretary of War, would be present at this year's annual meeting, but it is now announced that he will be unable to come.

BUILDING PERMITS

Building permits have been issued to J. M. Smith, 178 Marlboro St., for $200 brick addition to residence; Joseph Balazo, 131 Chatham street, $100 alterations to brick store; W. G. Hawthorne, 8 Fleet street, $50 sleeping porch.

AIRPLANE CAME DOWN

An aviator from Beamsville ran out of gas while passing over the city yesterday morning, and was forced to land his machine on Terrace Hill, near the St. George road, where it attracted considerable attention. After receiving a supply of gasoline, the aviator proceeded on his way.

GIVEN MONTH MORE

The Courier received word from the Canada Food Board this morning that keepers of public eating houses and manufacturers of confectionery have been allowed until July 1 to obtain licenses from the Food Board. June 1 was the date previously set, but it has been deemed expedient to extend this time limit.

MAY MAKE OWN WINE

There is nothing to prevent a man making wine for his own use, whether from dandelions, grapes or any other article, provided he does not sell the same if it is over 2 1/2 per cent. proof spirits. After December 31 next, under the order in Council of the Federal Parliament, it will become illegal to manufacture. This is the interpretation which the Ontario License Board has delivered on the subject.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Large congregations were the order of the day at the First Baptist Church yesterday. A communion service was conducted in the morning, and the hand of welcome extended to a number of new members. Over three hundred were in attendance in the afternoon. All the services were conducted by the pastor, and special music was pleasingly rendered by the choir.

CORPUS CHRISTI

The feast of Corpus Christi was observed in St. Basil's church yesterday morning, a parade of the Blessed Sacrament through the church taking place following High Mass. Flowers were strewn in the path of the priest by a number of flower girls. Rev. Dean Brady, speaking from the text "He that eateth this bread shall live forever," delivered a plea for frequent communion.

HAS D. S. O. ALREADY

In the list of the King's Birthday honours, announced this morning, the name of Lt.-Col. Ashton Cutcliffe of this city appears among those awarded the D.S.O. Lt.-Col. Cutcliffe, who went overseas with a quota from the 25th Dragoons in 1914, was reported to have won the D.S.O. two years ago, and the repetition of his name is a mystery. He is a brother of Lt.-Col. M. E. B. Cutcliffe, late of the 12th Battalion, who is now at home here.
