MARY PICKFORD

in the first Superior Production under her own guidance

Less than the Dust

Written by Hector Turnbull. Directed by John Emerson. A picturesque story of modern India, in which Miss Pickford as a little English castaway has developed a brand new characterization of intense power, meliorated by all the sweet and adorable qualities which have given her such a tremendous and devoted following. "Less than the Dust" takes its name from a poem written by Laurence Hope and published in her book of India Love Lyrics. It is the plaintive cry of one of the lower caste. The real nature of the girl, her loyalty to the people she has lived among and finally her great love for an English officer and the discovery of the fact that she herself is English makes a story full of drama, a fine blending of comedy and a touch of human feeling that is most appealing.

The second meeting of the Kentville Music Study Club, was held at Sinclair's Studio on February 12th where an instructive as well as appreciative program was rendered. All music lovers should avail themselves of the opportunity to attend this Musical feast held every fortnight.

H. Pineo, Wolfville, Optometrist, will be at Waverly Hotel, Canning, if weather is fairly fine, Thurs, Feb. 21st, 1.30 P. M., to Fri. 1.30. Always at home office Mondays Tues. Saturday.

One of the brightest exchanges that comes to our desk is the Truro Daily News. While we are not strong on the phonetic or abbreviated spelling of our contemporary yet when we want good live news of foreign events we can always find it in the News in concentrated or tabloid form ready for instant digestion. We confess to using the News of the Daily News much oftener than we give them credit for.

To-night and Saturday night at the Nicklet Theatre:— Wm. Fox presents "Broadway Sport" in 5 parts. Also Charlie Chaplin, in "The Cure."

Lieut. Ray Haley, of the Royal Flying Corps, son of Mr. R. G. Haley, St John, has returned from overseas.

The scarcity of rain and no thaws since the first of the year has made water very scarce. Wells are running dry and reservoirs are getting low. Fortunately Kentville has on the last supply it will.

Sergt. J. D. Logan, of the 85th, Editor of the Nova Scotia Highlander published while at Camp Aldershot, has returned from overseas.

Mrs. Edmond C. Magee, formerly of Somerset, died in Rockester, N. Y. in Feb. 7th.

Mr. Arthur Ford, of Bear River, has been at Kington Station, guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Ewan, of Tatmagouche, are spending the winter at Lakeville. The Truro News says of Mr. Ewan. For three years, Mr. Ewan was the obliging and efficient manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia here. In December of last year he was transferred to Amherst and a few weeks later severed his connection with the Bank of Nova Scotia. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ewan, will be greatly missed as they took an active part in all that went on.
