February's Move-on Prices

TO BE STILL MORE STIRRING

We've again done Police-Duty throughout the store, and as a result many additional Winter Shoes are added to February's "MOVE-ON" Price List.

The fact that these are thoroughly desirable shoes upon which we are proud to place our name, and that they have advanced in Wholesale Cost has nothing to do with the cost, THEY MUST "MOVE-ON."

You will be the gainer, if you STEP LIVE-LY, by the sensational prices that will prevail here beginning to-morrow

Miller's Worm Powders not only make the infantile system untenable for worms, but by their action on the stomach, liver and bowels they correct such troubles as lack of appetite, biliousness and other internal disorders that the worms create. Children thrive upon them and no matter what condition their worm-infested stomachs may be in, they will show improvement as soon as the treatment begins.

CITY NEWS

Water Commissioners
The Water Commissioners met yesterday morning to arrange again until their regular meeting night, Tuesday evening next.

Invitation
The sergeant-major and sergeants of the 25th Brant Dragoons received an invitation from B Squadron, Paris, to attend their annual Ball, on Tuesday, Feb. 4th.

Social Evening.
The choir of Calvary Baptist church gave a social evening to their friends, taking the form of an oyster supper. Games were played and everyone had a thoroughly good time.

Pulled Off His Wheel.
About three o'clock yesterday afternoon a young man was riding up Market street on his bicycle and was pulled off the wheel by a collie dog. The young man's trousers were torn but the dog's teeth did not enter the flesh.

Obituary.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Annie Trotter, took place from her late residence, Brantford Township yesterday afternoon at the Paris cemetery. Rev. Mr. Woodside conducted the services. The pallbearers were: John Kinney, Richard Sanderson, T. A. Cox, John McClure, J. R. Moyle, Geo. Wall.

Narrow Escape
City Solicitor A. J. Wilkes, had a narrow escape from being seriously injured while in Toronto a few days ago. Mr. Wilkes, accompanied by one of his sons, was about to cross one of the busy streets and did not notice a fast approaching auto until it was nearly right on top of him. He just stepped back in time to see the auto go whizzing by.

Complimentary Banquet.
The Provincial committee of the Y.M.C.A. has issued an invitation to the Secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. to attend a complimentary banquet to be held in the West End Y.M.C.A., Toronto on Feb. 13, in honor of Mr. John Penman, who is retiring from office after fifteen years of active service in the work of the association.

Went to the Port.
Charles Smith, formerly proprietor of Smith's Inn, left to-day for Port Rowan where he takes possession of the Hanson House to-morrow. Mr. Smith was given first-class recommendations from Chief Slemm and License Inspector R. J. Eacrett in regard to his conducting of his hotel here. "Charlie's" many friends will wish him every success in his new venture.

Re-union.
The semi-annual reunion of Mr. F. W. Thompson's Bible class took place last evening in the lecture room of the Colborne street church. About 125 were present. After games had been indulged in, Dr. Hanna, the president of the class, and also a former teacher, presided over a very interesting programme, consisting of speeches, solos and recitations. Refreshments were served at the close and a very delightful evening was enjoyed by all present.

Armories

Beam Broke.
About half a mile from Mt. Pleasant shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday morning, a break beam on one of the T. H. and B. flat cars broke and delayed traffic for about an hour.

Destitute.
Mr. Axford of the Children's Aid Society, was down in Wentworth County yesterday looking into a case of destitution. He found when he arrived there a very sad case—a mother and child with practically nothing to eat. The child went to school yesterday for the first time in a year. The only thing the little one had to eat was what the school children contributed. The bailiff had recently gone to the house and taken practically everything. Mr. Axford stated: "The only thing I saw in the house to eat was a slice of bread and a sugar beet." Mr. Axford has taken the case in hand.

Police Court.
Alex. McPherson charged with begging was allowed to go. J. Shanahan was charged with assaulting Charles La Rush. The case was adjourned until Monday. A woman arraigned on an assault charge, was adjourned for one week. Wm. Ethridge charged with assault, was remanded until to-morrow. A woman charged with disorderly conduct allowed to go. Fred Stoll was fined $2 for assaulting Angus McAuley. A billed man charged with obtaining liquor was fined $12.85. Two young boys charged with theft were allowed to go on suspended sentence, the parents paying the costs of the court and making restitution.

Y.M.C.A.
The young men of Zion Presbyterian, Park Baptist and the Congregational Churches held a well attended social evening at the Y. M. C. A. last night. The Secretary, Mr. Goodwin occupied the chair. A quartette composed of Messrs. Carpenter, Morland, Skidmore and Ritchie, sang a couple of numbers. Mr. Morland rendered a solo, as did Mr. J. Dixon. Mr. G. D. Pequegnat sang, "The Bell in the Lighthouse." Ald. Hollinrake gave a couple of recitations. Mr. Macklin was the humorist of the evening.

Two games of baseball were played. In the first game Zion beat the Congregational 10-4, but in the second the Park Baptists took their measure 16-10. The feature of the second game was the Colquhoun battery—father and son. A dainty lunch was served as a fitting climax.

A RESOLUTION

To Prevent One Man Constantly Running for President in States

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—A day's debate in the Senate on the resolution proposing a single term of six years for the President and making the chief executive ineligible to succeed himself, brought forth two im-
