Miss L. Parks, Governeur, N.Y., is the guest of Mr, and Mrs. Wm. Moore. On Saturday evening last, one of our highly esteemed residents, Miss Jane Berry, passed away at the home of her er, Mr. James Berry, after an illness of some months, during which the deceased was at times a great aufferer, owing to asthma. In spite of the length of her illness, her death came as a shock to her immediate relatives and triends, as her health, up to a few days previous to her death, permitted her to be about the house as usual. The funeral took place on Monday from her brother's residence to the Methodist church at Shiloh, where the funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. J. Curtis of Addison and Rev. Mr. Snell of North Augusta; thence to the neighboring cemetry. The pall-bearers were Mr. W. Millar, Mr. A. Morrison, Mr. T. Maud, Mr. H. O'Neill, Mr.

Berry and Mr. Edwards. Deceased is survived by two brothers, effects of fitty weeks of confine of this place. To the friends is extend appetite, and make your sleep easy ed the heartfelt sympathy of the entire and restful. ommunity, and we trust that the God from our midst may be their comfort
