A Silent Message

Pleasantly in course of events on Sunday morning last it was ours to meet with other worshipers in a neat little school house of an adjacent community. Scarcely had the Sunday School lessons been brought to a close as we entered and took our seats near the door. Inevitably our attention was at once centred upon the cheerful youthful faces of the younger class as the questions concerning the lesson was answered in earnest, innocent tones. Prompted perhaps by the remembrance of recent correspondence, we could scarcely refrain from picturing in our minds the contrast between the scene before us and the sad condition of the dear little ones in the war stricken countries of Europe. Allowable indeed may it be that for a few moments by the flicker of the mind we should wander far from the pleasant scenes of the School room and mingle with the people of Austria, especially in the fast city Vienna now with almost all of the territory that formerly supported its population now in the possession of bitterly hostile states, more than a million persons in that city alone are now dependant upon the charity of more fortunate people. Then for a few moments in fancy we join the American Friends Relief Mission in Germany where through the aid of other powerful agencies a million undernourished children have been receiving one hot meal a day to supplement the insufficient food available at home. At this juncture our thoughts were interrupted by the closing of the school and we were deprived of thus in fancy following the Mission workers into Poland, Serbia, Syria and especially Russia where at present exists one of the most awful Relief Problems in all of present Europe and perhaps in all history. And with the opening of the meeting a strange coincidence occurred, as the leader whither by a wise choice or by Divine direction read that profound and sublime parable in which Jesus brings all the nations of the Earth before the bar of Eternal Judgement, upon that solemn occasion with the light of Eternity beaming down upon the conduct of men upon the earth he makes the final test of membership in the Kingdom of Heaven dependant upon the measure of service rendered to the distressed and needy in the great family of God, "Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, come ye blessed of the Father and inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world for I was an hungered and ye gave me meat, I was a stranger and ye took me in, naked and ye clothed me I was sick and ye visited me, I was in prison and ye came unto me, then shall all the righteous answer Ilim saying Lord when saw we thee an hungered and fed thee or thirsty and gave thee drink, when saw we thee a stranger and took thee in or naked and clothed thee or when saw we thee sick or in prison and came unto thee, and the King shall answer and say unto them inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me

Little wonder that as we returned we should feel a great responsibility on the one hand and on the other earnestly to enquire has not the time long since come when highly educated christian nations should be able to settle their differences by other means than resorting again to the barbaric methods of war and by means easily within their reach ushe in the time by prophets long foretold when the sword shall be beaten into ploughshares and the spears into pruning-hooks, when nation shall not lift up sword against nation nor learn war any more.

Tanlac has been an unflinching source of comfort to millions throughout the length and breadth of this continent. Have you tried it for your troubles? Sold by J. P. Lamb and son, Athens

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.
