

Glained by the Way.

Some men die hard and some others are dead easy.

It's queer how some people imagine they are having a good time when they do things you dislike.

'How is Nell going to make up that flake colored dress?' 'I guess with a flare skirt.'

Nervous Prostration.

Mrs. Edward Schwartz, Latham, Ont., writes: 'I had nervous prostration, could not sleep, had frequent headaches and dizzy spells, palpitation of the heart, was tired, exhausted and very irritable and nervous. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cured it all and I cannot find words to express my thankfulness. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cures in nature's way by forming rich, red blood and building up the system.'

Mr. Goldleigh (severely)—There must be a check to this extravagance. 'Clarice—Exactly, papa; and make it a big one, won't you?'

Owner—'What made that horse kick you?' 'Stalder—I may be a fool, gay nor, but I ain't fool enough to go back and ask him!'

Constipation and Headache. Mrs. R. Morrow, Brantford, Ont., writes: 'For many years I was troubled constantly with constipation of the bowels and never got any relief until I used the medicine which has been obtained from Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They also cured me of headaches and improved my general health very much. There is a place for Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in every home as a cure for constipation, headache and indigestion.'

Blobs—'I hear you have been up in Maine shooting. Have any luck?' 'Slobs—Great luck. A fellow shot at me for a deer and missed me.'

'You say she married for love; but I happen to know that the man she married is worth a million.' 'Of course; the million is what she loves!'

Piles. To prove to you that Dr. Chase's Ointment is a certain and absolute cure for each and every kind of hemorrhoids, bleedings and protruding piles, the manufacturer has arranged to issue a free trial box of the ointment in the daily press and ask your neighbors what they think of it. You can use it for ten days and if it does not cure you, you may return it for a full refund. Write for a free trial box to Dr. Chase's Ointment, 1234 St. Nicholas St., Toronto, Ont.

Dr. Chase's Ointment Mrs. Benham—You should say nothing but good of the dead. Benham—That doesn't mean that you should say nothing but bad of the living.

'I say, do you think that Wiggins is a man to be trusted?' 'Trusted? Yes, rather. Why I'd trust him with my life!'

'Yes, but with anything of value I mean?' 'I could not sleep—I could not rest—was ready to cry on the least occasion—yet I was plump and fat. Can you imagine a more distressing condition than weakness of body and mind?' writes Mrs. Wesley, of Halifax. 'I lost myself in a sort of self pity because health seemed so shattered, and with the mental distress that grew with my bodily weakness, I was a burden to myself and a greater burden to my family.'

'Though I sought and really needed help, I got very little, for I did not look so very sick. It was only my nerves that were sick, and anyone who has sick nerves knows too well how awful a sickness it is.'

'From the first Ferreroze strengthened my nerves, and it seemed to help them for I became stronger, more composed, slept more and grew more hopeful. When I had taken Ferreroze for about two months I lost that miserable sense of dread I never could tell what I was afraid of, but expected something dreadful was going to happen to me. Ferreroze gave me the strength to throw aside these tangles and made me well again.'

Go at once to your druggist, for a few boxes of Ferreroze—start right on the road to vigor. Ferreroze will keep you there—will show you what it means to be healthy, vigorous, full of nerve energy. Once you're braced up and energized with Ferreroze you'll never again be content with ill-health.

||All dealers sell Ferreroze, 50c. per box or six boxes for $2.50.

Origin of Fruits. The strawberry, says a European authority, comes from a cross between the native strawberry of Virginia and that of Chile. The raspberry is native in temperate Europe and in Asia. The apricot originated in China. The peach was originally a Chinese fruit. The cherry originated round the Caspian Sea. The plum comes from the Caucasus and Turkey. The pear is native in temperate Europe and Western Asia. The quince comes from Southeastern Europe, the Caucasus and the Caspian region. The apple is native all over Europe, in the Caucasus, round the Black Sea and in Persia. The almond comes from Transcaucasia, Mesopotamia, Persia, Turkistan and Algeria. The fig seems to have originated round the Mediterranean, particularly in Syria. The grape is native in Southern Europe, Algeria, Morocco and Western Asia. The red currant grows wild all over Europe, in the Caucasus, Persia and Northern India. The sweet orange originated in Southern China and Cochin China. The citrus is of Indian origin.

The old-fashioned way of doing a weak stomach, or stimulating the Heart or Kidneys is all wrong. Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error. This is why his prescription—Dr. Shoop's Bismuth—is directed entirely to the cause of these ailments—the weak inside or controlling nerves. It isn't so difficult, says Dr. Shoop, to strengthen a weak stomach, Heart or Kidneys, if one goes at it correctly. Each inside organ has its controlling or inside nerve. When these nerves fall, then those organs cease to function. These vital truths are leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Bismuth. That is a few days, and see! Improvement will promptly and surely follow. Sold by J. V. Wolfeville, Nov. 17, 1911.

Send Advice. A man advertised recently, in a London paper to forward, on receipt of postage stamps, sound, practical advice that would be applicable at any time and to all persons and conditions of life.

On receipt of the stamps, he sent his numerous victims the following: 'Never give a boy a penny to hold your hand, while you climb a tree to look into the middle of next week. The Catholic News.'

Regularity in Feeding.

A horse that is fed regularly will be in better condition on three meals of oats in the day than one that is fed irregularly will be on four. He knows exactly when his attendant will feed him, and does not weary for his meals; whereas a horse that is fed at any or all times is never really satisfied, and will worry while waiting for his careless attendant, and his meals. Irregularity in feeding is also a productive cause of many stable ills. No more straw or hay should be placed before a horse in the morning than he can eat up cleanly in an hour, a less quantity should be given at midday, and in the evening he should never get any more than will reasonably serve him over night. Regularity in feeding is important in any class of live stock in insuring the best results.

For the Superstitious. To make tea too strong is a sign of new friends. If you make it too weak then you will lose friends. If you sing, while making bread you will weep before it is eaten. To forget to put coffee in the coffee pot is a sign of coming grief. If a cork pops out of a bottle suddenly, beware of an unknown enemy. A quarrel is coming if you allow a cooking-stove to get red hot on top. When bread, cake, or pie will burn in spite of you, your husband or lover is angry with a tin of fruit or anything similar, the juice should happen to spurt up in the operator's face, it is a sign of some coming good. N. B.—And if you place too much weight in these omens, you are simply looking for trouble.

Death or Insanity Nervous, Sleepless, Worn Out. Expected to die or go crazy with nervousness. 'I could not sleep—I could not rest—was ready to cry on the least occasion—yet I was plump and fat. HANDS COVERED WITH ECZEMA AMPUTATION FEARED, BUT ZAM-BUK SAVED.

'For three long months I was not able to attend to my own needs; and for three weeks the eczema on my hands was so bad that I was unable to feed myself. I had to be fed on one feeds a baby, because I could not hold knife, fork, spoon or cup.' so says Miss Violet McCorley, of 75, Gore Street, South Ste. Marie, in telling how Zam-Buk cured her of eczema. She adds: 'Hands, wrists and arms up to the elbows were covered with eczema. The itching and the soreness were so high unbearable. As the disease developed, the skin actually peeled off leaving raw sores. The palms, fingers, backs of my hands and wrists were all in this shocking state, and I was forced to sit in agony all the while.'

'The raw sores were soon in a foul condition, and my finger nails, all except two, fell off. During the different stages of my trouble, I sought the advice of three different doctors and received treatment, but although getting slight relief at first there was no cure. Amputation was at one time thought necessary but the timely introduction of Zam-Buk prevented this fearful ending.'

'Zam-Buk was recommended by a friend and we bought a supply. The first few applications gave me a little ease, but it was not until I had continued with it for some time that I felt a decided improvement. After that my cure went on quickly. Zam-Buk did what everything else had failed to do. Now my hands and arms are quite free from the terrible eczema.'

Are you suffering from skin disease? If so, take Miss McCorley's advice and try Zam-Buk.

Zam-Buk cures eczema, skin, piles, bad leg, ringworm, itching sores, cuts, bruises, burns, stings, poisoned wounds of all kinds, sunburn, face and eye, bed sores, chapped skin, and all itching, irritation and inflammation. Of all druggists and stores, or write to J. V. Wolfeville, 35 Dufferin St., Toronto, for same price. Beware all cheap and worthless substitutes of the "just as good" type.

FREE TRIAL BOX Send this card and a 1c stamp to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, and a quality trial box of Zam-Buk will be mailed you.

The War Against Absinthe. The war against absinthe is extending. Some time ago the sale of it was forbidden in Belgium. Now it has been introduced into the French Chamber of Deputies a bill forbidding the manufacture and sale of absinthe and liquors having absinthe as a basis. The penalties imposed by the law are, according to the British Medical Journal, imprisonment from three months to two years.

Remove Poisons FROM THE SYSTEM There are three ways and three only, by which the human body can be rid of poisons and waste matter—the bowels, the kidneys and the skin. It is only when the bowels become sluggish and constipated that the kidneys play out as a result of the excessive work thrown upon them. Now, there is only one medical treatment that fully realizes this condition of affairs.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills For they regulate the bowels as well as the kidneys; and thereby remove the cause of trouble and cure the most complicated cases. You can scarcely find a case of kidney disease which did not begin with liver and bowel disorders, and which could therefore have been prevented by this great preservative of the human system. One pill costs 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Mrs. R. Morrow, Brantford, Ont., writes: 'For several years I was troubled with constipation and nervous headache. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills found me of these ailments and improved my health in a general way. I always recommend them.'

and fines from $50. to 10,000fr., £2 to £400. The term of imprisonment and the fines may be imposed together or separately. In Switzerland the Committee appointed to consider a petition asking that the sale of absinthe should be prohibited, the Chamber of Geneva has, after careful examination of reports of medical, economic, and legal sub-committees, unanimously decided to propose to the Grand Council a scheme for forbidding the retail sale of absinthe or any similar product.—Westminster Gazette.

The Deciding Vote. There lives in a Western State a humble old lady whose interest in politics is confined to the single fact that her son was elected a number of years ago a member of the legislature, and has several times since been re-elected. What he has actually done in the legislature she does not know. She has no doubt, that he has done all that a good boy grown to be a great man, ought to have done or could do; and one good thing, at least, he did to justify her confidence. When the legislature assembled in the autumn of 1906, the son visited his mother, and chided her good-naturedly for not reading the speeches he had sent her. She had saved them all, and knew just where they were; but she confessed that she had not been able to read them all, nor to understand very well what she had read. 'But you are going to make a speech this year that I shall read, every word,' said he, 'tell me which one that is, and I'll be sure to make it,' said he. 'It's the one on the anti saloon bill,' said she. 'Oh, that one!' he said, somewhat confusedly. 'Yes. I know it will be a good one. My boy, you know what liquor did for our home years ago. I have prayed all the years that my son might grow up to save other boys from his father's fate. And this is your opportunity. I know you will be true to it.'

'Well, mother,' replied the son. 'I don't know that I have confidence in these efforts to make men good by legislation. You can't very well do more than regulate the liquor traffic. The attempt to prohibit it altogether always fails. I don't know that I can make a speech in favor of that bill.'

But these arguments fell unheeded on her ears. She did not take them seriously. She thought her son joking, as was his wont, and she said, 'Oh, I know you like to tease me,' she said, 'but I know you'll vote for that bill, and speak for it. And I shall read every word of your speech, and I shall pray for you every day, that God will bless that speech and make it win the fight.'

The son had, indeed, expected to speak on the bill, but on the other side; and he never had doubted, nor had his political friends, which way he would vote. But the weeks went by, and the date of the bill hung in the balance, and he kept his own counsel. It was assumed, however, that he would vote against the bill in the end, and so his silence caused no uneasiness to the liquor men.

'I know why you are waiting to make your great speech when the great fight comes. God bless you, my boy! I am praying for you. How proud I am of you!'

It was that letter that put all doubt aside. When the lines began to tighten and a dead-lock was threatening, he first voted on an amendment which forecast his final action. That vote brought surprise to the friends of temperance and discouragement to the friends of the liquor cause. And when the bill came up on its third reading, he spoke. He did not see the members of the House, but he saw an old woman, reading his speech through spectacles that required frequent wiping, and it was a speech that carried conviction.

The vote was so close that any one of a dozen things might have turned the scale; but among the stories told in the committee-rooms, after the bill became a law under which several hundred saloons were obliged to close, is that related. It is the true story of the way a mother's prayer and confidence had their decisive influence in the making of a law.—Youth's Companion.

Good Cough Medicine for Children. The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says, 'I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction.' This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by Rand's Drug Store.

'Can you conceive,' asked the professor, 'an eternal vacuum, a portion of space unoccupied, an empty void into which nothing ever enters, from which nothing can ever come, which maintains inviolate and for ever its own eternal emptiness?' 'I can,' replied the student 'immediately; 'I have a fountain pen.'

For that Dull Feeling After Eating. I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating.—DARRY FARRAR, Kemp, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at Rand's Drug Store and see what a splendid medicine it is.
