

One of the prettiest and most fashionable weddings of the season was held this afternoon, the contracting parties being Miss Helen Maud Grant, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Grant, 137 East Avenue south, and William Davidson Shambrook, only son of Mr. George Shambrook, of this city. The ceremony was performed in St. Thomas Church by Rev. E. J. Etherington. The church was beautifully decorated with the Christmas decorations of holly and evergreens. Promptly at the hour of 4 o'clock the bride and groom, accompanied by the bridesmaids and groomsmen, proceeded down the aisle to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Lillie Peene, organist of the church. The bride was given away by her father. She presented a pretty picture in a magnificent costume of Brussels net over white satin, with the veil and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Marjorie Grant, who was daintily costumed in pink crepe de chine, trimmed with pink satin, with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Harry Kilvert, of this city. The ushers at the church were Mr. Rex Warwick, of Toronto, and Mr. Sam Gibson, of this city. Mrs. Grant, mother of the bride, was attired in white lace with a black picture hat, and carried a shower of American beauty roses. Mrs. George Shambrook, mother of the groom, was tastefully attired in a costume of black lace, with hat to match. The bridal party left the church to the beautiful strains of the Lehergrün wedding march. The church was filled almost to its capacity to accommodate the many friends of the contracting parties.

A reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother at the conclusion of the ceremony, where the guests assembled to honor the bride. The usual toasts to the health of the bride and groom were enthusiastically received, and many nice things were said of the happy young couple.

The bride and groom will leave on the 6.20 T. & E. train for points east and south. Mrs. Shambrook's going away costume is a navy blue tailor made, with hat to match. On their return they will reside in the city. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents from admiring friends, and she was voted one of the most popular brides of the season. There were about a hundred guests at the reception held at the house.

Among those present at the wedding were: Dr. and Mrs. John Hall, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. The marriage of Miss Florence Beatrice MacBurney, daughter of the late John MacBurney and Mrs. MacBurney, Union avenue, to Mr. John Black Britton, of Hamilton, took place Thursday evening last at Knox Church, Montreal. The Rev. Dr. Fleck officiated. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. F. MacBurney, wore white Louisiana silk and white plumed hat, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Hazel Middlemiss, her cousin, and the groom's cousin, Miss Hope Black, dressed in pink cologne, and carrying bouquets of pink roses. Mr. Frank Campbell acted as best man, and the usher was Mr. Murdoch Leacock. After the reception following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Britton left for the west. The bride travelled in navy chiffon velvet and blue plumed hat. They will, on their return, reside on Hutchison street.

Our lines may be said to be cast in pleasant places when we fish for compliments and catch one.

WANT CLAUSE REPEALED.

Grand Trunk Still Fighting Against Two-Cent Rate.

Ottawa, Dec. 20.—In view of the recent decision of the 442nd Court upholding the order of the Railway Commission compelling the Grand Trunk Railway Company to give a third-class fare accommodation at one penny per mile on at least one train per day each way between Toronto and Montreal, the company is now applying to Parliament for legislation at this session repealing the clause in its charter on which the order was based.
