FRANCE ALL EXCITEMENT

Over the Attempted Shooting of Major Dreyfus. One Man Offers to Murder Him—Editorial Vituperation.

Paris, June 5.—Whether yesterday's attempt upon the life of Major Alfred Dreyfus at the time of the canonizing of Emile Zola in the Pantheon was only the individual act of a man believing himself to be an outraged patriot or had behind it an incipient nationalist plot, the Republican press are unanimous in deploring the incident, and believes it injured, rather than aided, that cause. Even those papers which doubted the wisdom of burying Zola in the Pantheon think that the shooting of Major Dreyfus consolidated the Republican sentiment, and they evidently desire to see the incident ended as early as possible. Any attempt to reopen the old Dreyfus issue at the trial of Louis Gregori, the man who shot at the major yesterday, they point out, can easily be frustrated as being plainly extraneous.

On the other hand, the fury of the Nationalist papers is unbounded. L'Action Francaise fires a broadside, which recalls the most exciting days of Dreyfus and Boulanger. At the head of its columns this newspaper prints a statement by Charles Maurras which, it is likely, the authorities will investigate. In this article the writer says that on Wednesday night "a resolute patriot visited M. Daudet and Lieut. Boisfleury, and himself offered to kill Dreyfus, but his proposal was rejected." A leading editorial in this paper appeals to the country to turn to the Duke of Orleans for redress, and contends with these words: "Do you desire that Zola's body be ejected from the Pantheon? Do you desire to march Dreyfus to the execution block? If so, invoke our king."

The paper also republishes a number of London reviews of the Dreyfus case, insisting that he is a traitor. The decision of the Court of Cassation to cut off the time for an appeal, the paper says, is illegal, and it concludes its article as follows: "What we ask for Dreyfus is not six balls from a revolver, but the twelve bullets from the execution squad." Other newspapers declare that Gregori, much grieved at the recent death of his mother, has lately manifested signs of mental derangement. With regard to the reasons for Gregori's act, the opinion prevails in Paris that there is much truth in his avowal that he was driven to the deed by the appeals to hatred with which the anti-Semitic papers have been filled since the Government resolved to place the body of Zola in the Pantheon. The state of his feeling can be gauged by an interview with Henri Rochefort, editor of the Patrie, which is published tonight, and in which he says: "It would have been a glorious death for Dreyfus. It would have been his first and only time under fire."

Action Saved Life. It was definitely established at the reconstruction this afternoon of the scene in the Pantheon that Gregori fired the first shot from behind Dreyfus, the ball penetrating the sleeve of his coat and burying itself in a flower pot at the base of the catafalque. When Dreyfus wheeled at the sound of the detonation he threw up his left arm over his head. The second shot was fired point blank at his breast, the bullet entering the wrist and ringing upward. It was located this afternoon by means of a radioscope, but was not extracted.

Mathieu Dreyfus, the brother of Major Dreyfus, who sprang forward to save him, chivalrously protected Gregori from the crowd which was raining blows with canes and umbrellas on the man, shouting: "It is not for us to punish; let the law take its course."

Would-be Assassin Talks. Gregori made a statement to the police directly after his arrest, and during a second interrogatory to-night he said: "I did not wish to kill Dreyfus. It is true I aimed at him, but I only wanted to graze him. My object was to protest against the participation of the army in the glorification of Zola and the rehabilitation of Dreyfus. My blow was aimed less at Dreyfus than at Dreyfusism."

In describing the scene before the magistrate, Mathieu Dreyfus said that at the sound of the first shot he shouted at Gregori, asking if he really was loaded. Gregori replied in the negative, as he pressed the trigger a second time. Other witnesses testified that they noticed Gregori's suspicious movements as he pressed forward in the throng. He was fumbling in his coat pocket, and as Dreyfus paid he ducked between the legs of the bystanders and arose and fired at the major's back. During the course of the day the police made several hundred arrests, but no serious importance is attached to these, as the prisoners are mostly students and rowdies who took part in numerous street brawls. Bullet Not Taken Out. Gregori's sister is unable to account for his act, except that he was carried away by indignation at the idea that the army, to which he has devoted his life and which he so passionately loved, should salute with its flags the author of "Al Delauche." She said her brother latterly had displayed symptoms of melancholy. The authorities are pursuing their investigation with a view to determining whether or not there is a plot behind the attempt of yesterday. This morning Gregori was taken to his apartment, and was present when the police made a thorough search of his rooms for possible incriminating documents. Their efforts developed nothing of importance. The bullet was not extracted from Major Dreyfus' arm.

GRIMSBY'S REEVE

Objects to the Way the Assessment is Laid On That Place.

(Special Dispatch to the Times.) St. Catharines, Ont., June 5.—At the Lincoln County Council meeting yesterday an animated discussion took place regarding assessment equalization. Reeve Mitchell of Grimsby claimed that Grimsby was unjustly assessed last year, and this year's apportionment was, just also. It was unfair, he said, to place an assessment of 90 per cent. of the property valuation on that municipality and one of 50 per cent. on the places as the committee's report would do. He suggested leaving the matter in the hands of the Reeves as to valuation of property in their respective municipalities. He considered that the assessors violated their oaths when they made such discrimination. Several councillors of Merriton concurred in Mr. Mitchell's views.

When Pain Follows Physic, the Physic is Wrong. Pain is always a symptom of injury. Gripping means that the physic is harsh—that it irritates. You injure the bowels when you seek to help them in that way. The bowel lining—like the skin—becomes calloused if you constantly irritate it. The hardened lining retards the natural functions. Then you have a chronic condition calling for constant physic. And the calloused bowels demand a heavier dose. Such physic is wrong. It is wicked. It destroys the very functions that you seek to aid. You cause what you seek to cure. One should never take any laxative save Cascarets. They are gentle and natural.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with C.C.C. on every tablet. The box is marked like this: Cascarets The vast-pocket box is 10 cents. The month-treatment box 50 cents. 12,000,000 boxes sold annually.

CLOSURE FOR PARLIAMENT.

unfair for the minister of Customs to go to his own city and mislead people there. He had also noticed in the newspapers that the postal employees were complaining of delay in getting their pay. Post office supplies had been voted.

Hon. Mr. Fielding thought that Mr. Owen might have waited until the Minister of Customs was in his place before he attacked him. The member for Northumberland would have some difficulty in persuading the country that the Minister of Customs would make any statement before a public audience which could not be substantiated. When Mr. Owen stated that the customs and post office supplies had been voted he was under delusion. They had not been voted. Not one dollar of these supplies had passed the House.

Mr. Owen—You have only to bring down a supply bill. Hon. Mr. Fielding ridiculed the suggestion that every time an item passed in the committee the Government should bring down a supply bill. There was no power under heaven which would enable the Government to get a dollar of money which had passed the committee until it had gone through several stages of Parliament.

Mr. Owen—Eleven millions have been passed in committee, and that is surely large enough to warrant a supply bill being brought down. Hon. Mr. Fielding said the Government did not propose to be dictated to by hon. gentlemen opposite as to what servants should be paid. They did not believe in making flesh of one class and fowl of another. The trouble was that they had given a loose and easy going permission to gentlemen opposite to delay the business of the House to an extent that would not be permitted in any other civilized country. Parliament had allowed a liberality which enabled half a dozen men to hold up public business, but it was never supposed that men would abuse that privilege.

Mr. Owen—What about 1896? Hon. Mr. Fielding—In 1896 there was never an hour when public service was not provided for. Mr. Gordon entered a vigorous protest against the obstruction tactics of the Opposition. The time had come, he argued, when it was necessary to find a remedy for the evil from which the House had suffered so largely, and he suggested that the rules of the House be amended to enable the House to proceed with the business of the country.

Mr. Lancaster attacked the Minister of Customs for leaving the House to take part in provincial politics and for making a statement which he (Lancaster) maintained was intolerable. Hon. Mr. Fielding—When I asked the leader of the Opposition to allow an additional supply bill to pass he refused. Mr. Borden pointed out that the reason for the delay was that an extremely

NEW ONTARIO.

A Very Promising Forecast for the Liberals. North Bay, June 4.—The following forecast for New Ontario at the coming Provincial election, now that nominations are all in, will not be amiss: Timogos, Liberal, will carry Sturgeon Falls by two hundred majority; Longhair, Liberal will carry Nipissing by between two and three hundred; McKelvie, Liberal, Temiskaming, will carry that constituency by over five hundred majority; Johnson, Liberal, Parry Sound, will win easily; Cochran will get the fight of his life in Sudbury. He has abandoned all his public meetings and has started a personal canvass. At the present writing it looks as though Price will defeat him, if Price gets any kind of vote in Sudbury town. At the nomination in North Bay the Conservatives refused a joint meeting to discuss the questions of the day. If Old Ontario does as well as New Ontario, Mr. Whitney and his Government have said their last farewell from the Government side of the benches.
