The number of entries was up to last year, and the show in all the departments was far ahead of expectation. The ladies' department surpassed anything we ever had. Fruit, vegetables, and roots, although not as large an exhibit as would be desired, were of excellent quality. The show of grain was good; some excellent samples of wheat were shown and the afternoon was pleasant. The turnout of horses, cattle and sheep was equal in every respect to any former was equal in every respect to any former year. On the whole the directors were well satisfied with the show, and feel that they can offer greater inducements to exhibitors for the future. There is no reason why this society cannot have one of the best shows in the county, and it is to be hoped that the officers and directors for the ensuing year will do their utmost to secure this end. The receipts at the door were over $50. at the door were over $50. The following is a list of the success-
