The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

Are you a collector? Not necessarily of stamps or bird's eggs, or any of the conventional things, but just of something. If you aren't you are missing one of the sources of happiness that life has to offer.

Did you ever see a book collector exulting over some old folio he had recently added to his collection? Did you ever see two autograph hunters comparing notes on some new acquisition in the way of great people's hen track signatures? If you have, you have seen a simple way to get a lot of happiness.

The safest happiness is of course that which is founded on the most interests, because then it is not entirely destroyed when two or three of them flag or fail. I know a retired newspaper man, one of the greatest interests of whose otherwise rather simple and colorless life is the collection of autographs which he started when he began his newspaper work. All the notable personages whom he met in the course of his long career were asked to put their names in the book and the result is a splendid collection in whose possession and enlarging he still finds continual pleasure.

A collection like this carries itself on by its own momentum. The only hard thing is to get it started, or rather to get it past that dangerous reaction that usually follows the enthusiasm of the start.

Of course a collection doesn't need to be intrinsically valuable to be a source of happiness. Indeed, I know few better things to collect than a scrapbook full of "quoted odes" and jewels five words long.

That on the stretched forefinger of all time Sparkle forever."

Why, I wonder, do so few people have the scrapbook habit nowadays? In our grandmother's day I think every woman had a scrapbook. Most of us have one of those books still tucked away in a drawer or cupboard—dear, time-yellowed old things, filled with clippings from "The Ladies' Repository" and "Every Saturday," and pages of copying done in the sweet old-fashioned writing that seems almost to exude a faint fragrance of rose leaves and Sweet William and mignonette from its quaint slants and curves.

And on the margins are the finger marks our childish hands made when mother let us take grandmother's scrapbook of a rainy afternoon.

Tell me, pray, what are the grandchildren of this scrapbookless age going to do on rainy afternoons? A gradual collection of sets of books is another source of much pleasure. Start your child with two or three of Scott's or Dickens' or Shakespeare's works and see what pleasure he will take in gradually completing the set.

And then the habit of collecting should be acquired for profit as well as for amusement.

For instance, there is no housewife but would do well to systematically collect all the good ideas and recipes and suggestions that she hears or reads.

There is no business or professional man who would not do well to build up a file of ideas and information regarding his business or profession.

There is doubtless some kind of collection that would profit or amuse you.

Of course I don't know what it is but you do, so why don't you start in to-morrow?

Or better still, to-day?

Ruth Cameron

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health. The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gladness is but a dream. Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-wracked women, by the hundreds of thousands, and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to intellects questionings and offensively repugnant examinations.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence held as sacredly confidential. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Great Family Doctor Book, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition—1000 pages, answers in plain English hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know about. Sent free, in plain wrapper to any address on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only, or in cloth binding for 50 stamps.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

A light wooden box should be provided for baby's toys.

A solution of oxalic acid is good to clean copper and brass.

Green vegetables are best cooked in open vessels to save the color.

A sun bath is of more value to health than much warming by the fire.

To give a richer flavor to the roast, baste it with drippings instead of water.

A piece of ham bone added to vegetable or stock soup will improve the flavor.

Candles will last much longer if they are kept on ice 24 hours before using.

To cure the sting of wasp or bee, mix common earth with water and apply at once.

One tablespoon of ammonia to a quart of water will clean gold or silver jewelry.

Hardly any better dusting cloth can be found than the old-fashioned red bandanna handkerchief.

To let vines climb up on wooden walls will seriously damage them, as it promotes decay.

If an oven is too hot, the temperature may be lowered by opening the lid of the range a trifle.

When making panned oysters it is essential to have the pan piping hot before putting anything into it.

When making sweet croquettes, add a little sugar to the crumbs in which the croquettes are to be rolled.

A pinch of salt and soda added to water in which tough meat or vegetables are boiled will make them more tender.

Celery can be much improved by soaking it for an hour in ice cold water in which a lemon has been squeezed.

Pans greased with butter will make the bottom crust of pies soft and flaky and prevent them from being soggy.

If bread is wrapped in paraffin paper as soon as it is taken from the oven, it will keep fresh and moist much longer.

To clean a copper kettle, rub it with powdered bath brick and paraffin, and polish with dry brickdust or whiting.

When finely chopped nuts are needed for cake, salad or sandwiches, the nuts should be run through the mincing machine.

Instead of using soap and water to polish painted surfaces, boil a pound of bran in a gallon of water and strain it.

To clean chamomile skin so that it will be soft after the washing wring it out of the soapy water and dry without rinsing.

Before using the broiler for fish, heat and rub over with a piece of salt pork. It will make the broiling process simple.

One Cough

A cough, just a little cough. It may not amount to much. Or, it may amount to everything! Some keep coughing until the lung tissues are seriously injured. Others stop their cough with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Sold for seventy years. How long have you known it? Lowell, Mass.

Weak Kidneys Kill Quickly.

Are you Irritable, Depressed? Does your Back Ache? Have you Nervous Fears? Any Illness of the Kidneys means a Sick Body all over. Note the Symptoms.

Are you weak? Feel tired out? Full of aches, pains? Have you had headaches? Does your back drag? Are your loins painful? Have you rheumatic pains? Are your ankles weak, swelled? Any puffiness under your eyes? If you have any of the above symptoms, give your overworked kidneys help at once. They are diseased, but can be restored by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Thousands of men and women use Dr. Hamilton's Pills every day—thousands have added years to their life by this best of all kidney medicines. Mrs. W. U. Rossiter, wife of a well-known merchant in Kensington, writes as follows:

"Ten years ago my kidney trouble started. I suffered dreadful pains in my spine and around my waist, my back feeling as if hot irons were running through. I couldn't sleep, had no appetite, was pale, thin, and very nervous. Cruel headaches, and despondency added to my burden. Not until I had used Dr. Hamilton's Pills did I get any relief. They proved capital and helped me immediately. Eight boxes made me well and now I do my own housework, feel and look the picture of health."

Your complete restoration to health is certain with Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butterbur, refuse substitutes, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00, at all dealers or the Cattaraugus Company, Kingston, Ont.

Jeffries So Confident

That He Has Arranged for a Tour of the World.

New York, Feb. 23.—According to H. H. Frazee, of Chicago, who managed the Jeffries-Gotch theatrical tour, the boiler-maker is so confident of whipping Jack Johnson that he has already signed a contract to make a tour of the world. Frazee, who is in town, says that the recent athletic tour netted $62,812 for Jeffries and $13,666 for Frank Gotch, the wrestler. "I have closed negotiations for a world's tour to begin immediately after the fight," said Frazee yesterday. "The combination will include Jeffries, Gotch, Stanley Ketchel, James J. Corbett, Sam Berger and Battling Nelson or Ad Wolgast. We will begin with sixty days on the road, visiting all the leading cities in the United States and Canada. On Oct. 15, we will sail from New York to show in Great Britain and Ireland, then France and Germany. We may visit Turkey and later we will go to South Africa. Then the route will be through India, Australia, China, Japan and the Philippines.

There is no time limit fixed for this great trip. In Australia we can get a guarantee of $100,000 for fifty days and a $25,000 purse for a twelve round fight between Jeffries and the best heavyweight in the antipodes. It is foolish to say that Jeffries cannot come back to his old form. Why, he's never lost it. He is as strong and fast to-day as he was five years ago. All he needs is a little road work and outdoor exercise in the mountains to perfect his wind. Jeff hasn't the slightest doubt as to the result of the fight. I have been travelling with him for three months and I know what I am talking about. He isn't overconfident, mind you, for he does not intend to take chances. But he is going into training absolutely sure of his man. Jeff knows Johnson like a book, and this will be demonstrated as soon as they get into the ring. There'll be no fluke about this battle, and it will take place in California."

He Had Him.

A young "brilliant" was perambulating the courts with an air of scarcely being able to find time to do anything—when the boy tracked him down in one of the corridors. "Oh, sir!" said the boy, "there is a man at your office with a brief, sir." "What a brief! Great Heavens!" And the young fellow began to run through the passages as fast as he could for fear the prey should escape him. "Stop, sir, stop!" cried the boy, who could scarcely keep pace. "You needn't hurry, sir; I've locked him in!"
