LONDON, Sept. 28.

The Governor, Newfoundland: General French reports enemy counter-attacks repulsed with heavy loss. At Haultuch, progress has been made, also east of Loos. The total British captures are 53 officers, 23 hundred men, 18 guns, and 22 machine guns.

The French Government reports continued fighting in Champagne. The French troops are now on the front before the second German line which is defended by concealed barbed wire. Some further progress is reported this afternoon.

In the Argonne the Germans have received a serious check from French counter-attacks.

Severe fighting continues at various points on the Russian front.

HOLDING BACK PARTICULARS OF BIG BATTLE.

HALIFAX, Sept. 28. Censors are holding up particulars of big fight.

ST. PIERRE BULLETIN.

PARIS, via St. Pierre, Sept. 28. In Artois, during the evening and night, we gained ground nearer and nearer toward the crests, east and southeast of Souchez.

In Champagne the Germans resist on their extended and hidden reserve positions, protected with barbed wire entanglements.

We realized further progress toward Hill 182, west of Navarin farm, and towards La Justice north of Massiges.

In Argonne the stubborn attacks launched yesterday by the enemy with six to eight battalions, against our first line of trenches of La Hille Mote and Nolant, resulted in a serious check for the enemy. During the night our counter-attacks permitted us to chase the German infantry from nearly all points where they had penetrated. The ground in front of our trenches is strewn with enemy corpses.

The night was relatively quiet on the remainder of the front.

Champagne front beyond Champs which reached Paris to-day, shows that it was the right of the German Crown Prince's army which was shattered in the attacks on Friday and Saturday. The Crown Prince's centre made furious efforts to counter in the Argonne yesterday with the result that all the railway lines to the east and north, according to French information, were engaged last night in carrying away the German wounded. French officials reckon that the Crown Prince's army lost 100,000 men in this attack and previous assaults during the summer. Germans captured recently testify that the resistance of the French has been as destructive as their offensive and that their artillery fire which was of deadly effect a year ago has now attained such intensity as to work demoralization among their opponents. French officers say the drive against Verdun is being transformed gradually into a defence of Metz, for the French are creeping slowly and steadily closer to the Lorraine stronghold.

ALLIES' NEW OFFENSIVE MAKES FURTHER GAINS.

PARIS, Sept. 28. The new offensive movement of the Allies has resulted in further gains in the Artois region near Souchez, the French War Office announced to-day. Additional progress is also reported in Champagne. The German counter-attack in the Argonne is said to have been repulsed, and the Germans left the ground covered with their dead.

FRENCH MAKE FURTHER GAINS.

PARIS, Sept. 28. The French troops fighting on the western front have made further gains on the grounds east of Souchez and north of Massiges, the prisoners taken including Germans recently brought back from the Russian front, according to an official statement issued by the War Office to-night. Heavy artillery action is in progress in Argonne.

THE UNITED STATES AND TURKISH ATROCITIES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, today sent a communication to the State Department saying that reports of Turkish atrocities against Armenians were greatly exaggerated, and defending it in part, the action of the Turkish Government. While the Ambassador's letter does not deny that extreme penalties have been imposed upon Armenians by the Turks, he stated that attempts to stir up rebellion, revolt and treasonable activity had made the Armenian policy necessary, as a war time measure. Since Turkey has let it be known that no foreign interference with her Armenian policy will be permitted, the United States will probably avoid the matter as a subject for any formal protest, unless Americans become involved.

ASQUITH AND GREY IN THE COMMONS.

LONDON, Sept. 28. "If Bulgarian mobilization should result in Bulgaria assuming an aggressive attitude on the side of our enemies, we are prepared to give our friends in the Balkans all the support in our power, in the manner that would be most welcome to them, and in concert with our Allies." Such was the announcement made by Sir Edward Grey, British Foreign Secretary, in the Commons this afternoon. Premier Asquith made an urgent appeal to all his hearers to abstain from raising questions regarding recruiting for national service. "We are at a critical moment in the history of the war," the Premier said. "We are watching with most intense sympathy and hope the gallant combined efforts of the Allied forces. I do not think greater indignation could be rendered to this country and the cause of the Allies, than that at this moment a suggestion should go forth to the world that there is any division of opinion here." The speeches of the Premier and Foreign Secretary Grey were followed with the closest attention as they dealt with phases of the war situation which are of particular interest at present. Sir Edward Grey emphasized the long standing friendship between Britain and Bulgaria, and added, "our official information from the Bulgarian Government is that they have taken up a position of armed neutrality to defend their rights and independence; and that they have no aggressive intentions against their Balkan neighbors. Not only is there no hostility in this country toward Bulgaria, but there is a traditionally warm feeling of sympathy with the Bulgarian people. So long as Bulgaria does not side with the cause of Germany and her Allies, there can be no question of British influence or forces being used in any sense hostile to Bulgarian interests. So long as the Bulgarian attitude is unaggressive, there can be no disturbance of those friendly relations." After making the announcement that if Bulgaria should assume an aggressive attitude on the side of Britain's enemies, the Government would take action, Sir Edward continued: "We are, of course, consulting with our Allies on the situation. I believe that the view which I express is theirs also, our policy being to secure an agreement in respect to the Balkan States, which will insure each of them not only independence, but a brilliant future based on the general principle of the territorial and political union of kindred nations. To secure this agreement we recognize that the legitimate aspirations of the Balkan States must find satisfaction. The policy of Germany, for her own purpose has been created for her own purpose of disunion and war among the Balkan States. She may use Austria-

Hungary to precipitate war, with the result that the Empire is completely subordinated to Germany and dependent upon her. Turkey, whose interests would have been preserved if she had remained neutral, being gratuitously purchased by Germany into war, is now being subordinated and made dependent on Germany's aspiration and influence from Berlin to Baghdad. In the same way it would naturally be Germany's policy to use any Balkan State with the inevitable result that those States eventually would be subordinated to her, and that though territorial gains might be promised, they would lose their independence. This is directly contrary to the policy of the Allies, which is to further the national aspirations of the Balkan States without sacrificing the independence of any of them."

BRITISH SUBMARINES IN BALTIC.

LONDON, Sept. 28. Silence of the Admiralty regarding the work of British submarines in the Baltic was explained in the Commons to-day by Thomas Macnamara. He said, in response to a question, that these submarines were under orders of the Russian Commander-in-Chief. The House will realize how much gallant and successful work is being done by these vessels, he said, but the responsibility of deciding what shall be made public of their proceedings in the Baltic must rest with the Russian Admiralty Commander Noel Lawree, the officer who was decorated by the Russian Government for the successful torpedo attack on the Moltke.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. Navigation of the Bristol (channel) and entrance to the Welsh coal ports of Cardiff and Port Bristol, have been prohibited by the British Government until further notice, owing to the probable presence in the vicinity of German submarines. This information is contained in a despatch received to-day by the State Department from Consul General Skinner of London.

CHINA WILL BUILD SHIPS.

The steamship company at Drammen, Norway, have ordered their steamers in China to be delivered in 1916 and 1917. Placing this order in China is due to the unusual pressure on the home yards.

Labor Will Help Britain to Gain Victory.

Vancouver, Sept. 23.—"Under existing conditions labor must lend every assistance to Great Britain and her allies in the mighty effort to secure early and final victory." On these words in the Executive Committee's report an acrimonious discussion took place last night at the session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, an amendment being made for their elimination, but this was defeated on a vote of 103 to 28.
