We see it stated in several Reform journals that Mr. Brydges has withdrawn his resignation as Intercolonial Railway Commissioner at the earnest solicitation of the Premier, and will remain on the Board for the present. No doubt it would be exceedingly inconvenient for any of the Intercolonial Commissioners to throw up their commission until the new Ministry have had time to make themselves acquainted in detail with the organization employed in the construction of that great public work. Whatever may have been Mr. Brydges' political faults, he is a good railway man It will be better for the Grand Trunk when he is enabled to finally sever his connection with the Intercolonial.

The Boston Transcript says that Mr. Alexander Agassiz, the only son of the late distinguished naturalist, inherits in a marked degree the ability and the taste for patient, thorough investigation possessed by his father. It is not often the case that the sons of distinguished men inherit their fathers' genius, although the two great Stephensons are a case in point. It will be matter of congratulation for America and the world if Agassiz the son becomes as great and good a man as was Agassiz the father.

The Ottawa Times gives an authorative denial to the statement in the Opposition press that the Civil Ser-Opposition press that the Civil Service employee had received instructions from the Heads of Departments as to how they should vote. On Tuesday the Deputy Heads informed the clerks of the Departments that there was no desire to interfere with them in voting for the mayorality, they were at perfect likerty, so far as the government was concerned to vote Government was concerned to vote as they pleased.

as they pleased.

It was announced a few days ago that Mr. H. Seymour Hubertus, of Toronto, had taken time by the forelock, by entering the field for the representation of the North Riding of York, as a supporter of the present Government. We are glad to learn that this is not the Mr. Hubertus of Ottawa, as had been stated. Shall we make a pun about Dodge? We scorn the action.

SOUTH SIMCOR ELECTION.—The nom ination for South Simcoe took place on Tuesday at Cookstown. Besides the real candidates, Messrs. S. Saunders and D'Arcy Boulton, a number of prominent politicians were proposed. Speeches were made by Messrs. Saunders and Boulton, also by Messrs. E. B. Wood, McKellar, M. C. Cameron, McMaster and Blain. The polling takes place on Tuesday next.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Mallon, night foreman, Globe, office, has just been appointed one of the Toronto, assessment valuators. The salary attached to the office $1,200 per annum Mr. Mallon is chosen on account of peculiar fitness and as representing the Catholic interest. He well deserves the appointment. serves the appointment.

It is stated that Hon. Peter Mitchell has entered or is about to enter a commercial business in Montreal. He was entertained at a dinner by the people of St. John previous to leaving.

VERY CONFIDENT rumors of an immediate dissolution of Parliament were floating about Hamilton on Saturday, but they are now set at rest by a positive denial from Ottawa of their truth.

Mr. Campbell, who opposed Mr. Ross, Minister of Militia, in his recent election, has protested the Montreal Witness does not usually look at evenus through such strong party spectacles as do the Toronto papers. This remarks on the recent election contest in that city will be found interesting:

The Tory pross have now to resort to the huministing process of "letting themselves down easy" and explaining away their confilent and boastful predictions of victory by the usual excuses of bribery, intimidation, Government patronage, &c., which, when the overwhelming majority of Moss is considered, appear papably absurd. If bribery was practised to any considerable extent it was, as usual, on the Conservative side,—in fact money was confessedly Eickford's only qualification, and that it was not lavished to a far greater extent was only owing to the fact that the hopelessness of his cause was apparent at an early stage of the day and he wisely "suspended payment," resolved not to lose his money as well as his seat. Great was the disappointment in consequence among the horde of venal electors, brokers in votes, and onhangers with supposititions influence, who had been stirred into activity by the rumors that Bickford was determined to buy his way into Parliament if money would do it, and expected a rich harvest. But little money was expended, and the apathy displayed by the Tory canvassers and whippers in was proportionately great, and in marked contrast to the steady, persistent energy and perfect organization omong Moss' supporters.
