

Mr. Jacob Wilcox of St. Thomas, Ontario, is one of the best known men in that vicinity. He is now, he says, an old man, but Hood's Sarsaparilla has made him feel young again.

"About a year ago I had a very severe attack of the grip, which resulted in my not having a well day for several months afterwards. I was completely run down and my system was in a Terrible Condition.

I lost flesh and became depressed in spirits. Finally a friend who had been benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla advised me to try it and I did so. I continued taking it until I used twelve bottles and today I can honestly say Hood's Sarsaparilla has restored me to my former health." JACOB WILCOX, St. Thomas, Ontario.

ANOTHER FIZZLE. Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 22.—The Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight has been declared off by the Florida Athletic Club. Corbett and Brady were willing to postpone the fight to Dec. 11, but Julian, as Fitz's representative was not, and the club then declared the fight off.

FITZ WANTS TO FIGHT. El Paso, Tex., Oct. 22.—A telegram was received here last night from Fitzsimmons' people at Corpus Christi, stating that Corbett will be invited to meet Fitzsimmons for a fight to a finish at El Paso. Fitz refused to enter into a "pillow-throwing" contest with Corbett at Hot Springs, because he had assurance that a fight to a finish could be brought off at El Paso.

TOLE. To the uninitiated the weird names by which the various implements used in the game of golf are known, as well as the ambiguous phrases used so importantly by the experienced golfer, are a constant source of wonderment and bewilderment. The brass niblick, the cleveland, the iron masher, bulger driver, the putter, the loftier and all the other varieties of sticks are in themselves enough to drive the novice to despair, but it remains for the Country Club to frame a set of rules governing the etiquette of golf. The first rule reads as follows: "Any player losing a ball or incurring delay thereby, may be passed by any other player coming up. A twosome may pass a threesome or foursome, and a foursome another twosome after giving the earlier game at the first tee a clear tee and one stroke, provided that is sufficient to put the earlier game out of range, except on the putting green, where under no circumstances shall more than one set of players be at the same time."—Philadelphia Record. THE TURF. FINE HORSES SOLD. Lexington, Ky., Oct. 22.—Major E. S. Thomas has sold to George A. Slingerly, of Philadelphia, and J. W. Knox, of New York, the bay colt Old Malta, yearling, by Duke of Montrose, Dan Almira, by Harthwaite, for $2,500. Joe Thayer sold to Abe Johnson, of Boston, the bay yearling filly Blessing, by Jay Bird, the dam of Larabee, 2:12 3-4, by Abdal Brino. Price paid, private, but high. Blessing raced second here last week in the Ashland stakes and has a record of 2:36. She entered in the Kentucky future and other big stakes to be trotted in her two and three year old form.

A Morning at St. Peter's.

The Cathedral Church of the Catholic Diocese of London.

Impressions of a Visitor on the Services and the Surroundings.

St. Peter's is not only the principal Roman Catholic edifice of London, but is the cathedral church for the London Diocese, over which presides as Bishop the Right Rev. Dr. O'Connor. (The diocese extends from Oxford to Essex, and north and south to the lakes.) It is an impressive building exteriorly, and will be more so when the towers are added. Within, it is equally impressive, with its high gothic ceilings, stately pillars, its statuary, the beautiful main altar in white marble, also two side altars in marble.

"And storied windows richly light, Casting a dim, religious light."

The principal service of the day begins at 10:30 a.m. As in other congregations, some give close attention to their devotions, some are less attentive. As in other congregations, though the attendance of men is large, the attendance of women is larger. As the people came in, each knelt for a moment in reverence. There are four services each Sunday: Vespers in the evening; a service at 7 a.m. and at 8:30 a.m., and the ordinary high mass at half-past ten. Music enters largely into this service, the celebrant intoning in Latin the passages appointed; the responses being given, also in Latin, by the choir. The celebrant at this service was the Rev. Father Tierman, whose commanding figure, dignity of manner, and excellent carrying voice seemed to be in keeping with a cathedral. Though the service is in Latin, the prayer-books have the English words set opposite, for example, as follows:

Gloria Patri, et Gloria be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

The singing was uniformly good, though not powerful, hardly powerful enough for a cathedral.

"Where through the long-drawn aisle and fretted vault, The pealing anthem swells the note of praise."

Mr. Thomas Ranahan's tenor voice was heard to good advantage. Mrs. Cruickshank presided at the organ.

About midway in the service, a young preacher, Rev. Thomas Noonan, modestly ascended the pulpit on the east side of the church. He first gave out the announcements for the day. One was of two intending marriages. All and sundry who knew of any lawful impediment to the marriage were enjoined to make known the same under pain of sin. All contracts for marriage must be announced for three successive Sundays. In another notice prayers were requested for the repose of the souls of two deceased persons. The Epistle was then read in English, the people sitting; but they stood while the Gospel was being read. The discourse, given without notes, was founded on the reading. It was not what one could call a consecutive sermon, nor was it doctrinal, but rather a plain and wholesome instruction. It largely treated of the precariousness of life, the uncertainties of health, the certainty of death; and also with the habit of some who are very religious for a short time, or when ill, but who allow carelessness or indifference to drag them down from the state of grace.

The congregation was large. There must have been not fewer than 1,000 persons present. The demeanor of the people was quiet, reverent and attentive.

FELL FOURTEEN STORIES. A Canadian's Awful Death in Buffalo—Fell From a Scaffold.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 22.—George Harvey, aged 45, the foreman of the scaffold builders at work on the new four-story Guaranty building at Pearl and Church streets, met with a horrible death this morning. Harvey came from Chicago five months ago to work for the Guaranty Construction Company and was looked upon as one of their most careful workmen. This morning he went up to the top floor of the building to superintend the putting up of a scaffold for some plasterers. He was working near the elevator shaft when some of the workmen heard him give a startled scream and saw him tumble from a narrow plank. Then they heard a thud below. They hurried to the elevator shaft. The body of Harvey was lying on the first floor fourteen stories below apparently dead. When his fellow-workmen reached the first floor they found Harvey unconscious. The Fitch ambulance was sent for, and he was quickly conveyed to that institution. He died a few moments after arriving there. Col. Richardson is of the opinion that Harvey struck the beam of the first floor in falling and that he either fractured his skull or was internally injured. Harvey's home was in Ottawa, Canada. Whether he has a family or not is not known. His body is at the morgue, and Coroner Kenney is investigating the case.

Homeless Children Cared for During the Year.

At the Protestant Home for Orphans.

Annual Meeting and Presentation of Reports—Heavy Expanding Expenses—A Bylaw Changed—Election of Officers.

The annual meeting of the Protestant Orphans' Home Board was held in Somerset Hall yesterday afternoon. Among those present were: Mrs. Morphy (president), Mesdames Gregsten (treasurer), McCallum, Spencer, Howell, Edge, Smart, Shaw-Wood, Webster, Robinson, Jeffery, De la Hooke, Beltz, H. A. Mathewson, Hamilton, Moore, Hutcheson, Thompson, and Mrs. Shuttleworth and Mrs. Elliott, secretaries; Dr. Niven, Messrs. Robinson, Thompson, McCormick and Flock and Rev. Robert Johnston.

Mrs. Shuttleworth, secretary, read the 21st annual report of the home.

"A review of another year's work," read the report, "reveals to us many causes for thanksgiving and encourages us to go forward in our work. Our Government report shows 37 children in the institution at the close of the year. Admission during the year 45, number discharged, 38. Total number taken care of during the year 79. In the spring there was an outbreak of diphtheria, but all recovered, and with this exception the health of the children has to report. Last year our home was opened as a shelter for the Children's Aid Society, and in doing so we have helped on the work of caring for the destitute and helpless, with our medical adviser, Dr. V. A. Brown, whose services and advice were so kindly and willingly given at all times. The report refers to the good work of the home, and the school, and concludes by returning thanks to all who had assisted in any way.

Dr. Niven, medical adviser, reported also. The doctor was accorded a standing vote of thanks.

Mrs. Gregsten read her annual report as treasurer, showing receipts of $3,690 57, which included a balance from last year of $27 68. The balance on hand and in bank was $17 68. Endowment fund transaction for the year showed receipts of $2,560 92, and expenditure $2,145 38, leaving a balance of $415 54.

The reports were adopted. There was some discussion on a motion to rescind the bylaw providing that all bequests should be placed to the credit of the endowment fund and that such bequests be used in future for building repairs, and insurance only, when necessary. The reason for this proposal was that the annual collections were not equal to expenses. Repairs amounting to $1,415 had been made within the last two years and $800 had to be borrowed from the endowment fund to meet them. The $1,000 raised at the "Oude Engelse Fayre" was placed to the credit of this fund.

Mrs. Shaw-Wood moved, adoption by Mrs. George Robinson, the adoption of the resolution, and it was carried.

A vote of thanks was passed to the officers.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President—Mrs. Morphy. Vice-Presidents—Mesdames Spencer, Robinson, Shaw-Wood and Edge. Secretary—Mrs. Shuttleworth. Assistant Secretary—Miss Hungerford. Treasurer—Mrs. Gregsten.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS was re-elected, as was also the advisory board. Lady Patronesses—Mesdames Spencer, McCallum and Hutcheson.

A. SCREATION & CO.

In the Methodist Church on Friday evening before a large congregation, for the benefit of the educational fund of the Methodist Church.

On Tuesday last, Oct. 15, a happy event took place at the residence of Mr. James Hennessey, of Biddulph, when his daughter Kate was married to Mr. Cornelius O'Brien, of Limerick. Mr. Dennis O'Brien, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Miss Harrison, a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed in the Catholic Church at 10 o'clock a.m. Then the happy couple returned to the home of the bride, where a sumptuous repast was provided for them. The happy couple left for Toronto Tuesday evening, where they intend to spend a few days with friends and relatives.

While riding home from Sabbath school at Wesley Methodist Church, on Sunday, Oct. 20, Miss Grace Fitzgerald, a girl of 14, was thrown from a buggy. As there were four in the buggy, she had not a very secure seat, and the horse making a sudden plunge she was thrown out, but was not seriously injured.

Recently a McGillivray farmer named Thomas Rice went out of his mind and caused a good deal of trouble. He tried to commit suicide, and his brother-in-law, in preventing him, was badly bitten. He was taken to the London Lunatic Asylum.

GLENCOE. Glencoe, Oct. 21.—Robert McDonald, a carpenter from Strathroy, while working on Mr. J. Bloom's new house, fell from the roof, about twenty feet. It is not known yet how serious his injuries are.

Miss Emma Rogers leaves tomorrow to take a position as teacher in Aurora. We will miss her.

The young ladies who gave the Japanese concert here on the 17th inst. think of repeating it in Bothwell next Friday evening. Bothwell people may be assured of a treat if they do so.

At a social given at the home of Mrs. A. Thomas, Miss A. Younge and Miss May Younge spent Sunday in Bothwell.

Mr. Allen, formerly operator at the C. P. R., North Glencoe, is here re-joining acquaintances.

PARKHILL. Parkhill, Oct. 21.—Rev. Mr. Cockburn, a blind minister from Toronto, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church here yesterday.

Rev. John Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys, of this town, are in Toronto this week attending the Sabbath school convention.

As a sequel to the accident of Mrs. T. Watson here last week, her little son is now in bed. In running to his mother's assistance, he some way put his hip out of joint, and will have to keep to his room for at least a week.

store is situated on Main street, and has a handsome plate glass frontage that would be a credit to any city in Canada. It consists of three spacious showrooms, where the intending purchaser cannot fail to be pleased, no matter what the peculiarity of his taste or the size of his purse. As you enter you are confronted on the ground floor with a beautiful display of parlor suites in all the newest patterns and designs, including plushes, brocades, rugs and cordans. On the second floor, you find, among other things, a magnificent display of dining tables, and bedroom suites. The top story of all is reserved largely for mattresses and bedsteads of a cheap grade. This establishment has been in existence for 29 years. It was started in 1866 by Mr. Robert Phippen, who was joined by his brother Nicholas in 1874. In 1887 Mr. Robt. Phippen retired from the business and Mr. Nicholas Phippen became the sole proprietor. In 1888 Nicholas Phippen was joined by his son Louis N. Phippen, and the firm was known as that of N. Phippen & Son. In 1894 Mr. Nicholas Phippen sold his interest in the establishment to Joseph W. Simpson, a most exemplary young man in the neighborhood, and he and Louis N. Phippen are now the principals of the firm. The secret of their success is easily discovered. They buy for cash in the cheapest markets, are satisfied with fair profits and are uniformly courteous and obliging in their treatment of customers. In the undertaking department they are particularly well equipped, and the manner in which they conduct themselves at funerals, and in the houses of the bereaved, has won for themselves a very enviable reputation.

W. C. T. U. Baltimore, Md., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Stevens, vice-president of the W. C. T. U., opened the convention yesterday in the absence of Miss Willard. Dr. Mary Wood Allen, superintendent of the purity department, read her report, and was followed by Mrs. Emelia D. Martin, national superintendent, who reported on "Purity Literature and Art." Mrs. Naomi D. Tomlinson, of Pennsylvania, national superintendent, read a paper on "Savior Meetings."

Dr. Louise C. Purington, of Massachusetts, presented the report of the department on franchise. She said women realized that they must get their help from the ballot.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Laura Ormiston Chant, of London, was the principal speaker before the W. C. T. U. yesterday. Other addresses were made by Rev. Alex. P. Boyle, secretary of the Catholic Total Abstinence Society, New York; Mrs. Josephine Nichols, of Indiana; Miss Elizabeth Uvays, of Maine; and Joshua Levering, prohibition candidate for governor of Maryland. M. H. Gulesian, an Armenian, spoke of the brutal massacre of his countrymen by the Turks.
