Pincombe, a deaf mute, who lived with his father in that place, left his home with the intention of visiting some friends. When evening came he did not return and his parents became uneasy. Since that date his whereabouts have been unknown, de-spite the fact that a diligent search has been kept up. Pincombe is 30 years of age, of fair complexion and wore at the time a pair of felt boots. Any information as to the young man would be gladly received by his father or High Constable

Schram. -At the last sitting of the winter assizes Mr. Justice Rose referred the case of Capstick vs. McLean to the county judge for trial. It is an action brought by a merchant named Capstick, of Dorchester Station, against Mr. McLean, a farmer of Dorchester township, for an account for goods which the plaintiff claims to have supplied the defendant. The amount involved is $225. When the case came before Judge Edward Elliott yesterday, E. Meredith, for the defendant, asked for an adjournment for a week to allow him to amend the pleadings. The request was granted. F. Love for plaintiff.

A Couplet of Weddings. St. Peter's Cathedral was this morning the scene of two of those events which are always universally interesting-marriage. As is usually the case, a large number of spectators were present. Father Tiernan, rector of the cathedral, officiated in both instances. Mr. W. Murphy, the well-known cab owner, and Miss Stella Ryan were the first couple made happy. The other contracting parties were Mr. Thomas Minogue and Miss Mamie Gibbons. Mr. Terry King acted as best man. The bride, who was assisted by her cousin, Miss Minie Dwyer wore brown beneathing. Charged With Burglary.

Some time last fall the summer residence in Westminster of Mr. Belcher, a traveler, of this city, was broken into during the absence of the family, and goods amounting in value to several hundred dollars carried off. Several other robberies have since that time occurred in the neighborhood, and about a month ago Mr. Belcher placed his case in the hands of Detectives Nickle and Rider. On the strength of information gleaned, they took out a search warrant this morning and proceeded to search the house of a family named Cake living on Front street, over Clarke's bridge. The detectives claim that several articles that are missing from the Belcher house were found on the premises and as a result they arrested two of the young men, Joseph and Thomas Cake, and lodged them in jail on the charge of housebreaking. Joseph Cake is a married man.

Death of Mr. Philip Matthews.

Mr. Philip Matthews, who died in his 74th year, was buried at Woodland Cemetery this afternoon. The funeral, from his late residence, Quebec street, was well attended by relatives and friends. The pallbearers, all nephews of the deceased, were: Messrs. Daniel Dorman, Ailsa Craig; John Dorman, Forest; George Murch, Lobo; George Lumby, city; B. Matthews, Denfield, and D. Matthews, city. Mr. in time developed into the village of Denfield. Mr. Matthews, grown to man's estate, occupied 50 years of his life farming in that district. About twelve years ago he removed to Nissouri, pursuing the same calling, and latterly lived near Oxford until he came to live with his sons in this city several months since. Five children survive-James, Robert and Benjamin, the sons, live on Quebec street, while the daughters, Mrs. George Atwell and Mrs. Samuel McFadden, reside in Nissouri and Ilderton respectively. Mr. Benjamin Matthews, an 82-year-old resident of Denfield, is the only surviving brother of the deceased, while three sisters-Mrs. Catharine Dorman, Ailsa Craig, Mrs. Richard Murch, Denfield, and Mrs. W. H. Ferguson, wife of the well-known grocer in this city-are still living.

ANNIE PIXLEY'S PROPERTY.

Her Family Said To Be About to Make a Fight for a Share of It.

The relatives of the late Miss Annie Pixley intend to make a fight for a share of the property left by the actress, which is rumored to amount to $200,000.

Miss Pixley died in London on Nov 9 last. She was taken seriously ill in the summer, and was forced to disband the company which she had formed for this season. In the hope of benefiting her health her husband, Robert Fulford, took her to Europe.

Immediately prior to her death Miss Pixley, it is said, was not mentally com-petent to make a will, but during the first stages of her illness some of her friends say she frequently spoke of her intention to provide for her mother, her two sisters and her two brothers. Since her death, how-ever, Mr. Fulford has not communicated with his deceased wife's family and has given no indication of any intention on his part to carry out what were said to be her desires with regard to them. Mr. Fulford is still in Europe .- [Toronto World,

Fuil Returns of the Prohibition Plebiscite. The returns of the plebiscite are now all in. According to them, the vote in the cities was about 2 to 1 in favor of prohibition, and that 40 per cent, of the total vote was polled. In the districts the proportionate majority was hardly as great as in the cities, and about 44 per cent. of the total vote was polled. In the separated towns the majority in favor Dwyer, wore brown hopsacking with satin trimmings. She carried a beautiful bonquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid was also of prohibition was as 3 to 2, and 62 per jority in favor of prohibition, the vote being small, was almost 3 to 2. The counties declared for prohibition by almost 2 to 11, and the returns show that 60 per cent. of the total vote was polled. The women's vote went 6 to 1 in favor of prohibition, and they polled 35 per cent. of their total vote. The grand total shows an average vote of almost exactly 19 to 11 in favor of prohibition, 58 per cent. of the vote having been polled.

The Chicago Herald Will Try It-Two Boats Ruilt. BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 6 .- The Herald states that two extraordinarily designed boats are being built in Baltimore for an Arctic expedition. The work of construction is being carried on with utmost secresy. The projector is said to be the Chicago Herald. The plan is to organize a party and start in early spring for the north. It is intended to ship the boats to Northern Russia, where the expedition will take to the water. It will be the purpose of the party to intercept members of the Peary expedition. The boats will be the first to he constructed of the latest of all the useful metals-aluminum. One is nearly finished and the other well under way. The builder has agreed to turn the boats over to the owners on March 28. The party which will risk the terrors of Arctic life will be made up, it is said, of several experienced navigators and explorers, four
