TALES OF LONDON TOWN

-There will be no shooting at the cove ranges on Saturday. -Mr. Charles McCallum, of Woods' Fair, returned last evening from a trip

-Mr. William Wilson, who left the city about ten days ago, for New York, has accepted a position with the Seville Packing Company, a biscuit company, as traveler for the Eastern Bishop of Huron and Mrs.

Baldwin and family have gone east on a holiday trip. The bishop will not return until about the middle of September. He has left Archdeacon Davis to act for him during his absence. -Starting tomorrow (Saturday) morning the London Hardware Company, 121 Dundas street, who suffered from a serious fire a few days ago, will start a special sale of the balance of their valuable stock. Everything will be cleared out at next to nothing prices.

-A number of persons summoned to appear before the police magistrate for non-payment of statute labor tax have called on Inspector McCallum to settle. In every instance they have been referred to the police magistrate. Once a summons is issued the matter passes beyond the jurisdiction of Inspector McCallum.

-Mr. James Bell, secretary of the London Old Boys' Association, is in eccipt of a letter from Mr. James A. Carrothers, of New York, relative to the formation of an active branch of the association in New York city. It is intended to have the new organization include residents of all the boroughs in greater New York.

-Mr. Arch Campbell, M. P., of Toronto, has returned from a visit to the northwest. He speaks in glowing terms of the prospects of the west. Mr. Campbell's son, who accompanied him on the trip, remains in the west, having been so much impressed with what he saw that he made up his mind to remain for a few years. He has located near Calgary, and has become interested in the ranching busi-

BORN SLAVE 100 YEARS AGO; DIED FREE MAN IN LONDON

Moses Bramen Was an Old Man walked every bit of the way. To dodge the southern troops and the different freebooting organizations When the Great American Civil War Broke Out.

A man whose long life had been filled with exciting and interesting experiences passed away this morning in the person of Moses Bramen, colored, at the remarkable age of 100 years. His death occurred at his home, 81 William street, where he had resided for many years.

He was born in the day of slavery at Petersburgh, Virginia. He passed his boyhood days in the cotton fields working overseer of the plantation. It appears, however, that he had resolved had always kept a watchful eye over chance to gain his liberty.

Moses stayed on the place of his birth until he was nearly sixty years disposition.

of age. The breaking out of the war between the North and South caused not discovered till late this morning, his master to send him to a place 500 miles south of Petersburgh. He had discovered the remarkable intelligence Moses possessed and resolved not to lose so good a servant. Moses was put on a plantation and compelled to work hard. After being there for some time he determined, with two other negroes, to make an attempt to get back to Petersburgh, and if possible to gain his liberty. Such a course was considered by the others to be extremely hazardous, if not impracticable. "Now or never," was Moses' decision, and with his companions, he started.

It would be impossible to describe the terrible journey the three slaves made. They forded nine rivers and necessitated the three traveling very secretly and mostly by night. They ate what they could find in the woods and fallen leaves formed their beds. After many weeks of the most wearisome travel the three arrived in the vicinity of Petersburgh, where they lived undiscovered for some time.

Word finally came to Moses' master of his return. The pantation owner laughed and said "impossible." Not until Moses had come one night to the planation and was there positively identified would the master believe that his old slave had come 500 miles on foot, forded nine rivers and braved the terrible dangers of the southern swamps, and yet lived. He was glad his boyhood days in the cotton fields to see his old servant again, though, and when quite young, through his and took him back and gave him a good conduct, was given authority by home. When the war was declared over and all slaves were set free Mr. his master and was made a kind of Bramer moved here. This was in the year 1867, and he lived in this city three or four years when he moved to Saturday: Fair and Warm; Local in his boyish days to some time throw North Buxton, Ont., where he pur-off the yoke of bondage. His master chased a farm. He remained there for nearly twenty years and then came Moses, and though not cruel to him back to London, where he has lived was always firm and gave him no for nearly two decades. He had followed the occupation of gardener and had made many friends by his genial when with the aid of Rev. J. A. Holt, it was discovered that Mr. Bramen had passed the century mark, though how far could not be found out. Mr. Bramen had been suffering from rheumatism for a number of years, but none of his faculties were impaired and his intellect was perfectly clear. He was married twice, his fist wife dying some years ago. He is survived Roberts, Brampton, 13 to 4. by his second wife, who is still hale and hearty at a ripe, old age. Mr. Bramen was a deacon of the Horton Baptist Church for vears. He was also a member of the Good Samaritans. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at the Horton Street

SUMMER NORMAL SCHOOL Mr. John Dearness, of London, Presided at Closing

The summer normal school at Toronto was brought pleasantly to a close yesterday afternoon by a gathering of pupils and teachers in the theater of the education building. The pupils, who were teachers from every district of the province, numbered about 200. Even Russell county, Essex county, Rat Portage and Sudbury were represented. The principal, Mr. John Dearness, of London, presided, and he was accompanied on the platform by Mr. John Millar, deputy minister of education, and the staff of the school. Each of the teachers spoke interestingly of the work under their charge, as follows:: Nature studies, the chairman, Mr. Dearness; manual training, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson and Mr. Hagerman; drawing, Mr. A. C. Casselman; domestic science, Mrs. Joy; music, Mr. Cringan. During their stay in the city the teachers were taken to visit a number of industrial institutions and factories. At the close of the meeting the appre-ciation and thanks of the pupils were expressed by a number of them, and a resolution of thanks to the minister of education, Hon. Richard Harcourt, was carried, and responded to by Mr. John Millar.

THE ASPHALT COMBINE

London Company's Solicitor Files an Affidavit.

Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, who is acting for the Forest City Paving Company in the asphalt litigation, yesterday filed an affidavit by Mr. Geo. C. Warren, says the Globe. The first eight paragraphs deal with the quality of the Warren Acme Asphalt, which he declares to be the equal of the Trinidad variety; in other words, that it is up to the quality called for in the specifications. The next paragraph deals with the relations existing between the Barber Asphalt Company and the Constructing and Paving Company, which, he says, are tantamount to a combine. His statement is substantially as follows: "I am reliably informed and believe that a combine exists in the city of Toronto between the Barber Asphalt Company and the Constructing and Paving Company, of Toronto, Limited, under which, while in apparent contracts and divide tenders among themselves, and have conspired together to prevent any others from getting contracts for asphalt pavements in Toronto."

tion Match.

No Rounds Yet Completed in the Doubles and Singles.

The Western Ontario Bowlers' Association tournament is nearing its end. The finals in the association match are being played this afternoon between T. S. Clarke's London rink and J. Greig's Seaforth rink. The consolation match has narrowed down to five rinks. Play is going on in the singles and doubles, and though some players are now in the third and fourth rounds of these contests, none of the rounds save the preliminary in the singles have yet been completed. Many bowlers have left for home. The tournament will probably close tonight. The results of this morning's play
