SIGNALING CLASS TO START IN A FEW DAYS AT THE BARRACKS

Interesting Column for the should be gazetted within the next few South African Company, through the work or Cecil Rhodes, and to the Military Man—a Breezy Letter From Toronto.

Tomorrow (Sunday) morning the Seventh Regiment will parade to church for divine service. The church to be visited will be St. James, South London, where Very Rev. Dean Davis will preach. The citizens will no doubt avail themselves of this opportunity to see the regiment to the best advantage yet this season. There is no lack of interest among the citizens in the Fusiliers this year, especially as the regiment has been making such a good showing. The Seventh will also be out in full strength next Monday night. Last Monday an excellent route march was had and the trooping of the colors was a very creditable performance, but the number of citizens who witnessed it was not as large as it would have been had they been aware that the trooping would take place. However, it is announced now for a certainty, unless the weather should change, that the colors will be trooped Monday night at Tecumseh Park. The park will be lighted and the grand-

It was thought then that it would be all off with the Montreal.

OUR TORONTO LETTER.

The Empire Club of Toronto held it: first luncheon at McConkey's Thur day afternoon. The president, Col. Mason, as usual, occupied the chair. To orator for the day was Right Rev. Bishop Dumoulin, who was formerly rector St. James' Cathedral, Toronto. He chose for his subject "Two Pillars of the Empire." These two pillars the bishop described as being the commercof the country and her language. There was a very large attendance of the among them was the military element. Capt. Wily Grier, of Toronto Field Battery, was present with the whole of the subaltern officers of that particular military unit. Capt. Wm. Faney who was wounded nearly 38 years sinc at Ridgeway during the Fenian rail Capt. Dickson, late of imperial ser vice; Major Mason, R. G.; Capt. Ceci Gibson, R. O.; Capt. Smith, Thirty sixth Regiment; Capt. H. F. Wyatt, ur attached. Rev Canon Welsh, chaplan G. G. B. G., were only some of the any military men who attended. The bishop paid an eloquent tribute to the memory of those great soldiers, such as Clive, Wellesley and Colin Campprotecting the trade and operations of the old East India Company, which said the bishop, had a history "whice was little short of marvelous." lordship then passed on to speak of the Hudson's Bay Company, and pointed out how close a connection there was between that famous company and the greater half of the North American continent. Lastly, under the heading of commerce, the bishop referred to the valor of many of the soldier-statesmen whose life-work had lain in South Af-

Toronto's annual church parade has been fixed for Sunday, May 15, and it will take place as usual to Massey Hall. It is now more than twelve years since these bi-annual parades were com menced, and it is a very remarkable circumstance that on no single occasion have they been interfered by rain or stormy weather. It is expected that nearly 2,500 members will be upon parade. They will include the Royal Canadian Dragoons, the G. G. B. G., the Toronto Light Horse, the Toronto Field Battery, No. 2 Company, R. C. R., the Q. O. R., the Royal Grenadiers, and the Firty-eighth Highlanders. Besides these, there will be the Engineers—we beg pardon, we should have said the Canadian Royal Engineers, a detachment from the O. S. C., the Toronto companies of the A. M. C. in full force; and yet this is not the end, for the Upper Canada College Corps of Cadets will be there in all

The parade on Wednesday night of the Q. O. R. was a remarkably good Nearly 600 men were under arms. Their drill was very good, though here and there signs of weakness were shown. The Grenadiers on Tuesday night paraded almost their whole strength. Colonel Stimson has now been in command of this corps for nearly two years and has proved himself as capable a C. O. as ever sat it saddle. There were come pessimistic, not to say ill-natured remarks, made when he assumed command. Some said that he would be more at home in a drawing room than in an orderly room. The colonel said nothing about himself, nor what he meant to do, but those kind people just referred to have ing at the Y. M. C. A. of this city, to since found out that Lieut.-Col. Stimson is thoroughly at home in his orderly room, while some of those who made these ill-natured remarks reapplied to him for permission to join specting him are now very sorry they considerable work this summer. The always turn out well, and their parade plans will be discussed at the meeting this week was not an exception to the Parade" at the military tournament,

One of the evening papers in To ronto has drawn attention to the fact that Major Merritt, of the G. G. B. G. has now been in command of that historic corps for nearly a year and yet is not gazetted to the lieutenant colonelcy, although his predecessor rentention of the Government to have signed the command on June 1 last The very pertinent inquiry is made "why is this so?" The Canadian Military Gazette had something to say in this same connection some week ago.

There will be no military parade to speak of in Toronto on Victoria Day. that is no parade of the entire garrison. The Highlanders will probably turn out and fire a feu de joie. this is about all the notice that will be taken of it by Toronto's soldiery.
